Senate Defers Filibuster Showdown

Havana Hails Fidel Castro

ON FBI LIST—David Lynn Thurston, an escapee from a Portland, Ore., jail and wanted for armed robbery and assault, yesterday was added to the FBI's list of 10 most wanted fugitives.

Wild Welcome Given Bearded Hero Of Revolt

HAVANA, Cuba (AP)—Joyous Havana gave a tumultuous welcome Thursday to Fidel Castro, bearded conquering hero of the Cuban revolution.

The 32-year-old warrior entered the capital just a week from the day his 26th of July movement tumbled the dictatorship of Fulgencio Batista.

In a last-minute surprise move, Castro left his motorcade approaching the capital from the east and landed by helicopter in an eastern suburb. Word that he was coming spread like wildfire and Havana residents poured into the streets.

The shouting rose to a great crescendo as Castro was spotted proceeding slowly in an open vehicle.

He was surrounded by armored cars, tanks and other vehicles. The bearded conquering hero of the Cuban revolution, addressing a roaring multitude at the presidential palace, cautioned the people that the great test ahead for them is to make a success of the revolution.

"Never Did Like" Place He delighted the crowd by speaking scornfully of the palace, the former dwelling place of Batista. "I never did like this building," he declared.

The crowd roared its approval. The crowds let out another big cheer when he spotted Castro's 9-year-old son, Fidel Jr., riding atop a tank in the motorcade escorting his father. The boy came here from New York, where he had been living with friends.

Horns honked incessantly, mingling with the steady roars of the people on foot. Impromptu military bands in big trucks poured out martial music.

Castro's warriors smiled broadly as they waved their rifles at the crowd, and posed for pictures. Confetti rained upon the rebel soldiers. For many it was their first visit to the glittering metropolis. They beamed proudly at their welcome, obviously enjoying the thundering welcome.

Business At Standstill Practically all business in Havana came to a standstill. Labor Confederation leaders told all workers to turn out en masse for the welcoming ceremony.

Watchful militiamen patrolled the capital's streets. All liquor shops were closed to prevent the celebration from getting out of hand.

The civilian-clad militia has been performing all police duties in Havana since shortly after Batista fled New Year's Day. The police have been disbanded and a national police reorganization is reported in progress.

It is reported that one of Castro's first goals after taking over as Provisional President Manuel Urrutia's military delegate—in effect, commander in chief—will be to disarm the militia.

Castro's headquarters will be at Camp Columbia in a Havana suburb.

Refugee Family

GRAZ, Austria (AP)—Police say a Yugoslav refugee has succeeded in bringing his entire family of 13 persons to this country.

They said the man fled Yugoslavia last year and then went back to bring out his wife, children, parents and grandparents.

Plans For NYC-Pennsy Merger Hit Roadblock

NEW YORK (AP)—Plans to merge the New York Central and Pennsylvania Railroads into one giant system smashed into a roadblock Thursday when Central directors called a halt to further merger studies.

The directors, meeting in Palm Beach, Fla., issued a statement calling for immediate "appropriate coordination of facilities" between the nation's two largest railroads.

Directors did not simplify this statement. It could mean joint use of duplicating facilities, such as freight terminals, passenger stations and rail trackage.

As for the proposed corporate merger, however, the directors said a study should be made that would bring about in the East

She's all in favor of it, however.

Likewise Message Will Emphasize Fiscal Integrity

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower's State of the Union message Friday actually will be a state of the world analysis keyed to the struggle against communism.

Much of the emphasis, the White House indicated Thursday, will be on the President's previously stated determination to maintain financial integrity at home while carrying on the battle for enduring global peace.

Press Secretary James C. Hagerty stressed that Eisenhower also is determined to carry a fight for his legislative program and foreign policy proposals directly to the people—if the heavily Democratic new Congress balks at going along with administration plans.

40-Minute Report

The President will deliver his State of the Union message personally at a Senate-House session at 12:30 p.m. EST. Friday. The 40-minute report will be carried nationwide on all television and radio networks.

Hagerty said Eisenhower will leave most specific legislative recommendations for outline later in a series of special messages. His budget proposals will be put before the lawmakers Jan. 19. The White House already has announced the budget to be submitted for the fiscal year starting July 1 will be balanced and will call for spending about 77 billion dollars.

Two Billion Less

That is less by about two billion dollars than estimated spending this year.

The last of the President's three major messages, the economic report, will go to Congress the day after the budget, Jan. 20.

As to Eisenhower's plans to carry the fight for his program to the people if necessary, Hagerty said the President is ready to set forth his views through all media—newspapers, radio and television, magazines, theater newsreels, and at news conferences.

Asked about specific plans, Hagerty said those would be ready for announcement soon.

Rules Change Vote Put Off Until Today

Compromise Seen With Johnson Plan Approval Likely

WASHINGTON (AP)—The first showdown vote in the Senate battle over filibusters has been shunted aside until Friday.

But senators on both sides of the issue orated several hours longer Thursday, getting their views on the record.

A compromise was predicted.

The question is whether to change the rules so as to make it easier to shut off filibusters—the endless talk weapon Southern Democrats have used effectively in the past to torpedo civil rights legislation.

Anderson vs. Johnson

Out of a long day of maneuvering and bickering came a decision to hold off until Friday the first key vote. This will come on a motion to table, and thus kill, a double-barreled proposal offered by Sen. Clinton P. Anderson (D-NM) on behalf of a coalition of Republicans and Northern Democrats.

This would throw open the Senate rules to revision, with the objective of establishing that can be done at the start of a new Congress by majority vote.

Challenging this position are Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas and the Southern Democrats. They contend the Senate's rules carry over from Congress to Congress because only one-third of the Senate's members are elected every two years.

Leaders of the Northern-Western bloc hope that, if they can open the rules to change, they can go on to write a rule to empower a majority of the Senate—50 members—to crush long-winded debate.

Compromise Likely

The present rule, now under attack, requires the votes of 66 senators, or two-thirds of the membership, to halt a filibuster. That's what the Southerners would like to preserve.

But the likeliest prospect is for a change that would let two-thirds of the senators present and voting bring debate to an end.

This is the compromise concocted by Johnson and a powerful array from the high command of Senate Democrats and Republicans.

Johnson laid his resolution before the Senate Wednesday. Anderson countered with the coalition substitute Thursday.

15 Youngsters Perish In Fire

BOSWELL, Okla. (UPI)—Flames destroyed a four-room cottage here before dawn Thursday and a Negro mother, her 10 children and 5 nieces and nephews burned to death as they huddled together in a bedroom without an outside door.

Bodies of the 15 youngsters were found piled atop one another near the body of the mother, indicating the children had rushed to her for protection. Her husband, Booker Gardner, 45-year-old farm laborer, was away "coon-hunting."

Firemen blamed the tragedy on an ancient wood-burning stove. A check by state arson investigators was ordered.

Mrs. Aire Gardner, 40, had hugged newborn twins to her breast as she succumbed.

In addition to Mrs. Gardner, dead were her children, Juanita, 15, Easter, 13, Isaac, 11, Louise, 9, Larry, 6, Joe, 2, Omie, 3, Gwendolyn, 5, and 6-month-old twins, Patricia Ann and Terresa Jan; three nieces, Bobbie Woolbright, 11, Peggy Sue Ward, 7, and Linda Ward, 4; and two nephews, Freddie Webb, 13, and Herschel Frazier, 10.

Belgian Parliament Orders Riot Probe

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP)—An emergency session of Parliament decided Thursday to send a nine-member committee to the Belgian Congo to investigate this week's bloody rioting at Leopoldville, the capital.

Violence flared Monday over demands for independence from Belgian rule. Forty-two Africans were killed in the three days of rioting.

Storm Batters Italy

ROME (AP)—Snow, hail and high winds Thursday disrupted air, sea and land transport in Italy and Sicily.

Castro In Triumphant Parade

Cuban rebel leader Fidel Castro waves to crowds as he rides down the Malecon, a seaside drive in the heart of Havana, yesterday. The revolutionary hero and his forces received a tremendous welcome as they paraded into the Cuban capital.

De Gaulle Takes Office, Appoints Debre Premier

PARIS (AP)—Gen. Charles de Gaulle became president of France today and pledged to use his strong executive powers to keep the new Fifth Republic on the stern path he outlined as premier. He declared he would do what had to be done for the nation's good.

Immediately after historic inauguration ceremonies, De Gaulle set the new republic in motion. He named as premier Michel Debre, Gaullist lawyer and an unbending nationalist.

There followed an unmistakable sign that De Gaulle intends to continue his strict control over French affairs. Debre announced a new Cabinet that carried over most of De Gaulle's top ministers.

De Gaulle took office in the gilded Salon des Fetes in the presidential palace, then drove to the majestic Arch of Triumph.

Thousands of Frenchmen lined the upper mile of the broad Champs Elysees to cheer him. Standing in an open car with outgoing President Rene Coty at his side, De Gaulle retraced the triumphal path he followed as leader of the Free French when Paris was liberated in World War II.

The 68-year-old soldier-politician became France's most powerful chief of state since Emperor Napoleon III, who was deposed in 1870.

About 200 of France's top figures ringed the Salon des Fetes. They included chiefs of government, the 17 autonomous republics of which De Gaulle is also president.

In the afternoon he worked at the presidential palace. But he sent word that his first night as president would be spent in the Hotel Matignon across the River Seine, where he has lived for the past seven months. His wife, Yvonne, had a quiet dinner waiting for him. She had seen the inauguration ceremony on television.

The tall general is expected to move into the palace-apartments Saturday, when his special long bed is installed.

Treasury To Borrow 31 Billion Dollars

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Treasury announced Thursday it plans to borrow 31 billion dollars next week.

In its first offering of long-term bonds in seven months, it will seek to market 750 million dollars of 4 per cent, 21-year bonds to be priced at 99 per cent of face value. At this price the bonds will yield about 4.07 per cent.

Additionally, it will offer 2½ billion dollars of notes bearing an interest rate of 3½ per cent but priced at 99½ per cent of face value to yield about 3.45 per cent. The 31 billion dollars total is 1¼ billion more than the Treasury had been expected to seek at this time.

Bottle Cap Note Brings Romance, Wedding Bells

NAPLES (AP)—Margarita Bettelli, 27, sails this week for Venezuela to become a bride in a romance that began with a note in a bottle cap.

A year ago Margarita wrote the note, saying she would like to visit Venezuela. She put it in the bottle cap at the plant where she worked. Two months later she received a letter from Franco Mule, a tailor in Maracaibo. He had her note. Correspondence and plans for the wedding followed.

Courtesy For Mikoyan Urged By Eisenhower

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower called Thursday for anti-Communist hecklers to end their jeering, sign-waving demonstrations against Anastas I. Mikoyan, Russia's visiting deputy premier.

The White House appealed for courteous treatment of the Kremlin's No. 2 man as he arrived in Detroit. There were pickets at the airport but Mikoyan's escort avoided them by taking a roundabout route.

The anti-Mikoyan demonstration in Detroit appeared less heated than those which boiled up in New York, Washington and Cleveland.

However, administration officials are reported fearful that demonstrators might become more and more violent as Mikoyan travels westward to Chicago, San Francisco and Los Angeles on his tour of the country.

Mikoyan has given no sign that he is upset or worried by the demonstrations.

Cuba Plane Unchallenged; Defense Zone Extended

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Pentagon announced Thursday the not normally extend into the Daytona-Orlando area "except on test or emergency basis."

A Pentagon statement said also the reason air defense radar had not been actively extended across southern Florida was that fighter aircraft and the radar for their air control has "been deployed on the basis of where the greatest potential threat existed."

The Dayton Beach Morning Journal Thursday reported the flight of the Cuban bomber.

It said the Cubans aboard, members of former President Batista's air force, fled to Florida to seek political sanctuary and are now living in Batista's Daytona Beach home.

The Cuban plane was 17 miles west of the cape when the pilot asked landing instructions. The active radar coverage for the

Police Line Holds Back Detroit Mob

Snowballs Thrown At Soviet Leader; No Hits Scored

DETROIT (AP)—A mob of screaming anti-Communist demonstrators surged against police lines Thursday night as Soviet Deputy Premier A. I. Mikoyan went to dinner with this automotive capital's top capitalists.

Snowballs were thrown. So were a few eggs. The Soviet leader was not hit. Police hauled in three men as egg-throwers.

The crowd, many of them Hungarians and refugees from other Iron Curtain countries, ignored President Eisenhower's plea Thursday for courteous treatment of the Soviet visitors.

Police Lt. Paul Sheidan estimated the demonstrators numbered 300. There were 112 policemen, most of them holding a line at mid-street in front of the exclusive Detroit Club, scene of the dinner.

Police Line Holds

Demonstrators pushed hard, but the police line held. Others, including plainclothesmen and state department security men, effectively protected Mikoyan from the mob.

The crowd had begun to gather in 20-degree, windy weather more than two hours earlier. It chanted intermittently, mostly: "Ruskie, go home."

Mikoyan hardly had been hustled into the club when four men bearing a black cheesecloth and frame coffin marched up the line of demonstrators. Printed on the coffin was: "Hungary 1956." The crowd howled.

The three egg throwers were held without charge. Police said they would be released later.

An Associated Press photographer, Bill Smith of Washington, was hit by an egg.

Airport Pickets Bypassed

Thursday night's demonstrators were the first pickets Mikoyan had seen during his day-long Detroit visit. His police escort deftly whisked him out of Willow Run Airport, by-passing some 50 picketers assembled in front of a hangar where he debarked from Cleveland Thursday morning. His caravan went out of the hangar's rear door.

Detroit is the second stop of his one-week, five-city transcontinental tour.

The chilled downtown demonstrators finally dispersed an hour after Mikoyan entered the club.

Top men in finance and the automotive industry were among guests at the dinner.

No pickets were encountered on Mikoyan's long daytime tour, stretching from one side of the Detroit metropolitan area to the other.

Israeli, U.A.R. Planes Tangle

JERUSALEM (AP)—Jet fighter patrols of Israel and the United Arab Republic battled high above desert dunes Thursday for the second time within three weeks.

U.A.R. army headquarters in Cairo claimed one of six Israeli planes was shot down and another damaged. An Israeli army spokesman in Tel Aviv said all Israeli planes had landed safely.

The fight, like that of Dec. 26 in which Israel claimed a kill, pitted French-built Israeli Mysteres against Soviet-built MIG-17s.

Again each side contended the other had violated its air space.

By Israeli account, the fight was over Israel's Negev desert, developing after four U.A.R. MIGs had sped across the frontier about noon.

Cairo said the fighting occurred over the Egyptian Sinai desert.

Navy Planes Collide; Three Airmen Killed

PENSACOLA, Fla. (UPI)—Two Navy training planes collided in the air near here Thursday, and the Navy said three airmen were killed.

The propeller-driven T-28 planes crashed together near Bronson Field about 13 miles west of here and fell in a thickly wooded area. Both planes, on routine proficiency flights, were based at Saultfield Field, an auxiliary of the Pensacola Naval Air Station.

The Navy said the victims were the two pilots and an enlisted passenger. Their names were withheld until relatives could be notified.

Russians Seen Near Manned Space Flight

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Space and atomic experts Wednesday predicted that Russia was close to developing a nuclear-powered airplane and a man-carrying spaceship.

Chairman Melvin Price (D-ILL.) of the House-Senate Atomic Research Subcommittee said he thought Russia would fly an atomic plane this year. He said U.S. "foot dragging" would hold back development of an American nuclear plane for "four or five years or more."

However, Price said he was sure the Russians had not yet flown an atomic plane, despite reports that they had, because the Soviets would have announced it.

He said the United States still could shave a couple of years off development of an atomic plane but that the official view is "the same kind of attitude that existed before Sputnik."

"We just don't see the importance of the thing until they do it," he said. Price estimated the propaganda value of flying an atomic plane as greater than Russia's recent cosmic rocket launching.

The forecast that Russia would achieve manned space flight "soon" was contained in a handbook made public by the House Space Committee and prepared by the Rand Corp., a top research firm.

Informed sources said this meant anytime from the next hour at earliest to the next two years at latest. The earliest official estimate of when the United States will be able to put man in space is two years.

Blonde Is Cleared In Baby Kidnaping

NEW YORK (AP)—A slight blonde in tattered pants caused a flurry of excitement Thursday in the police hunt for the kidnaper of a newborn baby girl.

The woman, who weighed about 100 pounds, was picked up, questioned, then released in the Jan. 3 kidnaping of Lisa Rose Chionchio 2½ hours after she was born in St. Peter's Hospital in Brooklyn.

The woman's name and address were not made public by police. She vaguely resembled the description of a blonde woman seen loitering around the hospital prior to the kidnaping.

Carbonneau's Statement Read At Opening Of Trial

Bungled Into Shooting Police Officer

LA PLATA, Md. (AP)—A state police officer's statement to a jury in which Albert G. Carbonneau was charged with murdering a State Police commander in a restaurant burglary plot last July.

Carbonneau, 33-year-old former television repairman and used car salesman, went on trial, charged with murdering Lt. Leonard N. Brown, the 46-year-old commander of the Waldorf Barracks was shot to death while supervising a stakeout at a restaurant after getting a tip it would be burglarized last July 7.

Hearing the case in Charles County Circuit Court is a jury and Chief Judge John B. Gray Jr. and Judge J. Dudley Digges.

Indicted on charges of conspiring to promote the commission of a crime with Carbonneau are Banks Smith, 35-year-old owner of Smith's Steakhouse where the shooting occurred, and Albert J. Salem, 37-year-old part-time detective and former policeman in Washington.

In a surprise announcement Thursday, defense attorney Ralph Powers said that the beautiful blonde former wife of Smith is now married to Carbonneau. This reportedly took place after she posted $15,000 bail for the slim, dark-haired defendant.

The prosecution and defense both stipulated at Thursday's opening court session that Lt. Brown was killed with a .25 caliber bullet fired from a gun held by Carbonneau.

Kimble Seeks To Extend, Up Jobless Pay

ANNAPOLIS—The State Department of Employment Security plans to ask the legislature to extend unemployment benefits four weeks, raise the maximum weekly payments $5 and eliminate allowances for dependents.

The proposals were submitted Thursday to Gov.-elect Tawes by Robert B. Kimble, executive director of the employment security department.

Tawes instructed Kimble to submit the proposals directly to the Legislature. Tawes said he would reserve comment pending a study of the plan.

The department proposes to: Extend jobless benefits from the present maximum of 26 weeks to 30 weeks.

Raise maximum weekly payments to $40.

Eliminate the $2 weekly allowance now granted for each dependent child under 16, not exceeding four children.

Kimble and his advisory council also proposed lowering the wage requirements which determine the weekly checks to claimants.

Kimble also asks greater weekly benefits for the partially unemployed as an incentive to seek work. In addition, he would impose higher penalties for voluntary unemployment, refusal to accept work and for discharges for misconduct.

Another amendment would change a section which prohibits jobless payments to those unemployed because of labor disputes. Kimble said the term "labor dispute" should refer only to strikes or refusals to work.

Proposed earlier by the department was a plan to increase taxes paid by employers to finance the jobless benefits program. At the same time the plan is aimed at restoring the system of tax incentives to employers with records of stable employment.

Monitor Hopes To Oust Hoffa

NEW YORK (AP)—One of three court-appointed monitors of the Teamsters Union said Thursday he plans a court move to try to oust its president, James R. Hoffa.

"I am at present working on a petition that would oust Hoffa," the monitor, Godfrey P. Schmidt, told a Young Republican Club luncheon.

He added that he hoped to have the petition ready in about a month for submission to Dist. Judge F. Dickinson Letts in Washington. Letts has been handling a dispute between Hoffa and a rebel Teamsters faction.

In Washington, an associate quoted Martin F. O'Donoghue, chairman of the board of monitors, as saying Schmidt was speaking for himself and not for the monitors.

Hoffa had no comment on Schmidt's remarks.

Schmidt and Hoffa have been bitter enemies ever since the monitor group was set up a year ago to police Teamsters activities. Each has sought in the past to depose the other.

Tanker Salvage Operations Resume

OCEAN CITY, Md. (AP)—Salvage operations have been resumed on the broken tanker African Queen after being delayed for days by bad weather, the salvage boat Curb reported Thursday.

A spokesman for Merritt-Chapman & Scott Corp. said crewmen have boarded the aft section of the vessel and are trying to correct a sharp starboard list.

Workmen also managed to get on the bow section and secure it by anchor.

The tanker, carrying crude oil from Colombia to Paulsboro, N.J., split in two and grounded on a shoal Dec. 30.

'Copter Rescues Two Fishermen

PATUXENT, Md. (AP)—A pair of fishermen from Crisfield who had been stranded on an island in the Chesapeake Bay since Sunday were rescued Thursday by a Navy helicopter.

Carey Crockett, 71, and Wayne Bennett, about 45, were spotted by a Coast Guard boat which was unable to reach them due to ice surrounding Holland Island. The Coast Guard notified the Naval Air Station here, which sent a helicopter.

Crockett and Bennett said their 30-foot powerboat was grounded Sunday and they were hemmed in by ice.

They had plenty of food but were running short of fuel oil. Bennett hopped out of the helicopter with a growth of beard, but Crockett, whose clean shaven face surprised a youth, commented, "Young man, I'm 71 and I've shaved every morning since I first began."

Halleck Lends Car, Offices To Martin

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Joseph W. Martin Jr. (R-Mass.) was using his chauffeured limousine and his big Capitol office suite again Thursday — temporarily.

Technically, the car financed by the House and the suite of the offices became the property of Rep. Charles A. Halleck (R-Ind.) when the 86th Congress convened Wednesday.

Martin was replaced by Halleck as Republican floor leader in the House. The automobile and the office space belong to the party leader during his tenure.

Halleck said Thursday he has told Martin he can keep the car and the office until it is convenient for him to turn them over to the new leader.

Meanwhile, Halleck is using his old office and driving his own automobile.

Tawes To Be Inaugurated In Pomp And Ceremony

ANNAPOLIS (AP)—J. Millard Tawes will be inaugurated as Maryland's 59th governor next Wednesday in a day-long pageant of pomp and ceremony.

The 64-year-old Crisfield native will become the state's first Democratic governor since the defeat of William Preston Lane in 1950 and the first governor from Maryland's Eastern Shore since 1920.

He will be given the oath of office by Chief Judge Frederick W. Brune of the Court of Appeals and will be presented by former Gov. Lane for his inaugural address.

The day-long inauguration program will begin with a band and choir concert at 10:45 a.m. and will end with a 4:30 p.m. open house at the governor's mansion.

The timetable follows:
10:45 a.m.—Concert by the U.S. Naval Academy Band with choral selections by the University of Maryland chapel choir and the girls' choir of Hollywood Methodist Church.

11:45 a.m.—Inaugural procession with legislative escort from Government House to the Senate chamber of the Statehouse.

Noon — Administration of the oath in the Senate chamber.

12:10 p.m. — Gov. Tawes will proceed to the executive offices and prepare his nomination of Thomas B. Finan for secretary of state, who will be sworn in after Senate confirmation.

Saved By Dog's Barks

BALTIMORE (AP)—Barks of a hunger-crazed dog led police Thursday to 68-year-old James R. McDonald who was semi-conscious and told police he had not eaten for days.

He was taken to Franklin Square Hospital.

Police said they found the retired railroader in his home on a sofa bundled in blankets. There was a telephone six feet away.

Maryland's Cigaret Tax Yield Exceeds $6 Million

BALTIMORE (AP)—The Maryland State Treasury has taken in more than six million dollars on stamps on all their inventory supplies as of last July 1.

Consequently, the division sold 63 million stamps from June 15 through July 31, or about 25 million more than would normally be the case, said Kennedy.

The Legislature enacted the tax last year to produce an estimated 10 1/2 million dollars or more to pay for a $400 pay raise for public school teachers.

Actually, the sales tax division administers the tax for all five counties and Baltimore City, which impose a levy. Then it kicks back their share to the subdivisions.

The tax per pack and half-year return to those subdivisions was as follows:

Baltimore City, three cents, $1,863,000.13; Baltimore County, three cents, $789,356.70; Carroll, two cents, $32,639.62; Garrett, one cent, $11,675.56; Harford, two cents, $76,585.73; and Montgomery, two cents, $244,064.15.

In total receipts from the 217,989,000 stamps sold, the state took in $9,804,480. In addition to the distribution to the taxing counties and Baltimore City, $638,922.90 went for administrative purposes to wholesalers and the Retail Sales Tax Division, and $49,182.25 was paid out in refunds.

Tawes Says His Judgment On No Tax Hike Upheld

WASHINGTON (AP)—J. Millard Tawes took pride tonight in having been able to announce earlier that he would not have to raise taxes while "essential services are maintained" in his first year as governor of Maryland.

Tawes said his judgment had been at stake. "I had told the voters of Maryland that I believed I could carry on with the existing programs," he said in a speech prepared before the Federal Government Accountants Assn., "that I believed I could carry on with the existing programs, continue without impairment the existing services and yet not raise their taxes."

"I made no irrevocable pledge that this could be done, for I would have been silly in advance of any firm knowledge of our revenue estimate."

The estimate framework in which Tawes will work out his budget of general appropriations is 201 million dollars. Another 239 million dollars is expected from special funds.

Tawes noted that by the constitution he will not become governor officially until next Wednesday.

But for practical purposes as far as the budget is concerned, he became governor on Nov. 4 when he was elected.

"As a matter of fact, Gov. McKeldin called me on Nov. 5 and told me that the budget for next year was to be my — and not his — full responsibility," Tawes said.

Tawes called attention in sketching the task of preparing the Maryland budget there more than 60 per cent of it is "untouchable — or virtually so — to my hands."

"These were appropriation items, of a mandatory or semi-mandatory nature, over which I as governor, charged under the constitution with the responsibility of preparing a budget, had no control."

"They include such things as public debt, the payment of revenues to civil divisions, automatic salary increments and additional support for retirement and social security growing out of these salary increments."

Nikirk Posts Bail

BALTIMORE (AP)—Edwin F. Nikirk, state's attorney for Frederick County, put up $1,000 cash bail Thursday on charges of income tax evasion.

He was sworn in Monday for his third term as prosecutor. The next day he was indicted.

The federal government claims he reported income of $20,844 for the three years of 1952-54 and it should have been $56,143.

Nikirk paid $3,532 in tax, and the government claims it should have been $13,956.

Police Probe Unit Named

BALTIMORE (AP)—A five-man committee was named Thursday by Judge John B. Gray Jr. of Prince Frederick to investigate alleged improprieties in the State Police department.

Judge Gray, acting as president of the Maryland State Bar Assn., selected the committee at the request of Gov. McKeldin.

Members include Hillary W. Gans of Baltimore, chairman; James C. L. Anderson, Towson; T. Hewlett Henry Jr., Easton; F. DeSales Mudd, La Plata, and Ellsworth R. Roulette, Hagerstown.

Judge Gray said the committee probe would investigate complaints made by the Criminal Justice Commission of Baltimore about irregular conduct in the service of warrants, "as well as more general charges" brought by the organization.

Judge Gray said some of charges "are susceptible of correction by administration action within the State Police organization."

The committee will have no power to subpoena witness or compel testimony, but Judge Gray said it was hoped all "familiar with the facts will voluntarily furnish such information as they may have."

Carver Gets 2 Years On Narcotics Charge

BALTIMORE (AP)—Vincent Carver, 36, of Newport, Ky., was sentenced today to two years in the House of Correction for possessing marihuana he said he harvested in his home state.

Carver and four horse race jockeys were arrested Dec. 4 shortly after arriving in Baltimore from a track at Wheeling, W. Va. Police said Carver had enough marihuana in a jar to make 1,500 cigarettes.

Robert F. Heath, 26, of New Orleans did not contest a charge he tried to sell some of the marihuana. He was given a two-year suspended sentence on condition he stay out of Maryland.

Three other jockeys were acquitted in trials 10 days ago.

Elderly Man Found Suffocated

ANNAPOLIS (AP)—Wilhelm Blaudow, 70, was found suffocated Thursday in the house in which he lived alone at nearby Severn. An exploding oil heater was blamed for the death.

Anne Arundel County police said a neighbor, James H. Butler, found Blaudow seated in a chair and the room filled with smoke and covered with soot. The floor near the stove was saturated with kerosene.

Lt. Leo J. Kinsey of the county police and Frank Burgess, deputy chief of the county fire prevention bureau, theorized that Blaudow went to sleep and the stove exploded, loosening the escape pipe.

German Reds Ready, Willing

BERLIN (UPI) — The East German government told Russia Wednesday it was ready and willing to take over control of Western allied air and land traffic to isolated West Berlin.

The Soviet zone Communists in a note to Moscow, demanded that the United States, Britain and France leave West Berlin to avert the danger of an atomic war. They denounced Western occupation of the city as illegal, intolerable, abnormal and dangerous.

The note warned the West that it would suffer a devastating defeat if it committed aggressive acts against East Germany.

The note was sent in answer to a Soviet note of Nov. 27 proposing that West Berlin be made a free, demilitarized city in six months.

The three Western allies have rejected Soviet demands that they leave West Berlin, located 110 miles inside the Soviet zone. In notes to the Kremlin Dec. 31, they said Russia could not abrogate unilaterally four-power occupation agreements or transfer authority over Western traffic to West Berlin to the East German Communists.

The East German statement that it was ready and willing to take over control of Western allied traffic from the Soviets posed the threat of a new blockade of West Berlin.

The Landrace prize hog, eight feet long and valued in the five figure range, was flown from New York on the final leg of its journey from Norway. Its new owner, W. L. Bridges, will get a bargain in spareribs if Odin Erga ever faces slaughter — the Landrace breed has 32 ribs, four more than the average porker. Judy Walker, 18, adds the contrast note. (AP Photofax)

Man Jailed On Forgery Count By Romney Court

Kelvey W. Cosner, 24, of Mt. Storm, was sentenced to a term of from 2 to 10 years in the Medium Security Prison at Huttonsville by Judge H. Gus Muntzing in Hampshire County (W.Va.) Circuit Court Wednesday.

Cosner, who was indicted for forgery, had been placed on parole after being convicted on a similar charge at a previous term of court.

In other action Wednesday, Judge Muntzing took under advisement the case of Brian Gosnell, 18, of Romney, who had been indicted on a felony charge and three misdemeanor counts in connection with a number of thefts and burglaries in the Romney area.

A plea of guilty to breaking and entering was made by Gosnell's court-appointed attorney, L. Thompson. Judge Muntzing said he would reserve sentence pending disposition of the cases against the juveniles on January 11 and 12.

Attorney James P. Geary entered a guilty plea for Robert G. Smith, 20, of Petersburg, who was indicted for breaking and entering a service station near Augusta. Geary requested probation for Smith, but Judge Muntzing said he would make his decision known on January 18, while noting that the young man faces further court action for the breaking and entering of a service station near Romney.

The jurist also said he would dispose of the charges against James R. Dennison, 20, of Springfield, and Jack V. Warman, 19, of Mason City, Pa., on January 12. The two were indicted for breaking and entering Springfield School, from which $101 was stolen, and charged with arson in the burning of a barn near Springfield which had been owned by Jesse Shanholzt.

The two youths requested parole, informing the jurist that they were AWOL from their Army base. They informed the court that the burning of the barn was not intentional, explaining that they had ignited a large fire to attract the attention of Mr. and Mrs. Shanholzt so that they might enter and burglarize their home. The blaze ignited the barn accidentally, the youths said.

Judge Muntzing suspended imposition of sentence against Mrs. Jessie Cunningham, of near Hoy, who was indicted for shooting and wounding her husband, Paul Cunningham, last September. Mrs. Cunningham was placed on probation and ordered to pay costs of the case.

Her husband appeared before court seeking clemency, informing Judge Muntzing that he had given provocation for the shooting and that they were again living together amicably.

The trials of Glenn R. and Gary C. Stickley, of the Purgitsville area, indicted for contributing to the delinquency of a minor in connection with the destruction of property in the Purgitsville and Sector area, will be heard on January 15.

No date was set for the trial of Luther D. Wolfe, 20, of Romney, indicted for attempted rape.

ON THE LINE

BY BOB CONSIDINE

NEW YORK — Comrade Mikoyan is going to be Russia's leading authority on U.S. supermarkets, motels and highway toll gates when he gets back to the great people's democracy. But whether he'll know anything basic about us is another question.

Ralph Charbeneau, a friend who is a Detroit advertising man, was browsing through the works of Alexis de Tocqueville last night and was struck so forcibly by a particular passage that he dictated it to me over the phone.

The great French liberal politician and writer, who died a century ago, wrote in his "Democracy in America":

"I sought for the greatness and genius of America in her commodious harbors and her ample rivers, and it was not there. In her fertile fields and boundless prairies, and it was not there. In her rich mines and her vast world commerce, and it was not there. 'Not until I went to the churches of America and heard her pulpits aflame with righteousness did I understand the secret of her genius and her power.'"

"America is great," De Tocqueville concluded, "because she is good, and if America ever ceases to be good, America will cease to be great."

Mr. M. has no churches on his schedule.

Judd L. Teller, a thoughtful student of the plight of Soviet Jews, points out that the visit of Mikoyan coincides with a number of black January anniversaries in that continuing struggle.

On January 13, 1948, Stalin's secret police assassinated the famous Soviet Jewish actor-director, Solomon Mikhoels.

On January 13, 1953, the Soviet government accused leading Jewish physicians of deliberately plotting the assassination by medical treatment of the top Kremlin hierarchy. Although these charges were dismissed after Stalin's death, Jews continued to suffer from serious disabilities in the U.S.S.R., such as discrimination in education and employment.

Late this month the Soviet Communist Party Congress will meet in Moscow. Reports are that it will consider the "Jewish question" and drastic measures of penalizing Soviet Jewry for its continued interest in Jewish culture and in Jewries abroad.

Mikoyan visits us billed as the "No. 2" man in the Kremlin.

There isn't any No. 2 there now. There is No. 1 — Khrushchev — and then it drops to about No. 20, and we can't be sure that Mikoyan is even No. 20.

Magistrate Fines Book Salesman, Charges Fraud

A salesman-solicitor for an furnished the set of 14 encyclopedia firm was fined $50 pedias free of charge and that at a hearing yesterday in Police Court, with Trial Magistrate Morris Baron informing the man that he should have been charged with fraud as well as failing to register as a salesman.

The man, Everett Elliott of Cambridge, pleaded not guilty to failing to register for a permit to conduct the sales campaign and informed the magistrate he did not make house-to-house calls but operated by appointment only.

Local Resident Given Decision In Damage Suit

A decision in favor of a Cumberland driver in a damage suit heard yesterday in Allegany County Circuit Court was handed down by Chief Judge Morgan C. Harris.

Gerald Ruckman, Waverly Terrace, had been sued for $1,000 damages by Mrs. Margaret Long, Hagerstown, owner of a car which figured in an accident on Route 40 just east of Hagerstown on May 25.

Ruckman testified yesterday that he was making a left turn into Cleveland Avenue or Route 64 leading to Chewesville off Route 40 when his machine was struck by one operated by Eric Long, son of the plaintiff.

Ruckman stated that Long came up behind him as both were driving east on the dual highway.

The 18-year-old Hagerstown driver then went over the medial strip and hit the side of Ruckman's car, doing $550 damage.

Ruckman's testimony was corroborated by his wife and his mother-in-law, Mrs. Almeda Curry, this city.

Long, however, testified that Ruckman was in the right hand lane and made a left turn in front of him.

Thomas N. Berry represented the Longs and William H. Gelpert, the defendants.

Hometown Welcome

TATEBAYASHI, Japan (UPI)—The commoner in line to be the next empress of Japan received a rousing welcome Thursday on her first visit to her hometown since she became engaged to Prince Akihito. More than 4,000 persons jammed the railway station to greet pretty Michiko Shoda. Miss Shoda became engaged to the Prince last November.

Haste Makes Waste

LONDON (AP)—A Soviet scientist said Wednesday a feverish pace of research had caused U.S. failures in rocket probes aimed at the moon.

"American scientists are being pushed and given tasks which have little in common with science," said Academician Anatoly Blagonravov, one of the leading scientists behind the Soviet space rocket.

The dolphin and carp can out-swim the fastest vessel.

One For Birds

SCARBOROUGH, England (UPI)—William Whitehead complained Thursday that a court's order to pay maintenance money to his wife might mean the end of his budie birds. Whitehead, who spends $1.40 a week on bird seed although he is unemployed, asked the judge: "Am I to give up my life's hobby for her?" When the judge told him "yes," Whitehead replied it was "a sin and a shame."

DOG SURVIVES 18 MONTHS

NAPLES, Italy (UPI)—A German shepherd dog lived unnoticed for 18 months at the bottom of a 100-foot pit in the town of Afragola, animal protection officers reported Wednesday. Officials said the dog subsisted on refuse dumped into the pit by villagers and on rainwater. It was rescued Tuesday after a man reported hearing a curious wailing. Villagers said the dog was one of three pups tossed into the well by a farmer 18 months ago.

Well Trained

BORLAENLE, Sweden (UPI)—The Swedish state railroad pros is an insect which attacks an-vid train crews with knives tique furniture as well as other Thurslay to kill elk knocked down and injured by trains.

Indictments Returned By Grand Jury

Two more indictments by the grand jury of the January term of Allegany County Circuit Court were placed on the open docket yesterday.

John Gary Dawson, this city, was indicted for the embezzlement of $328 from John Fier trading as Perrin's Food Market, 501 Baltimore Avenue, on December 6.

Dawson was apprehended in New York State and returned here for trial. A pickup truck owned by the grocery store was found abandoned in Buffalo, N. Y., earlier.

Robert Charles Bryant, 18-year-old Westernport resident, abandoned house off Oldtown Road.

Iser was captured by the FBI nearly a month later in Montgomery, Ala.

ZIPPER WINDOWS

OSLO, Norway (UPI)—Plastic windows with zipper fasteners may soon show up in American homes. Sigvard Sundby, a Norwegian inventor, won a silver medal for the idea at the inventors fair in 1957 and now has a crew of nine men working full time to fill orders for the windows after breaking jail. He was found hungry and cold after designed to diffuse the sun's rays having stayed several days in an and deflect heat in summer.

Home Economic Adult Course Slated Soon

Afternoon classes for women will be started next week at Parkside Elementary School in LaVale and at Ellerslie Elementary School, according to Miss Ruth C. McColly, supervisor of home economics in the Allegany County public schools.

Plans are being made for three series of afternoon classes in home economics at Parkside starting Wednesday, January 14, from 1:15 until 3:15 p.m.

The first class, continuing for six consecutive Wednesdays ending February 18, will be in home furnishings. It will place emphasis on the principles of art and design as related to the home and its furnishings. Included will be selection of accessories for the home.

Second series, starting Wednesday, February 25, will be in the area of clothing construction. Simple alterations such as hems, skirt bands and other needs will be covered. This class will end Wednesday, April 8, with a holiday on March 25, the Wednesday in Holy Week.

Miss McColly said it is hoped to conclude the series with demonstrations in food preparation. This program probably will start April 15 and end May 20. Women in the Parkside area may attend any or all of these classes. There is no requirement that they take all three series of programs.

Mrs. Wilma Haines will serve as instructor of these classes, sponsored by the Board of Education as a service to the community. Interested persons should be at Parkside School at 1:15 p.m. January 14.

The class at Ellerslie will feature pointers on clothing alterations. Mrs. Marie Farrell will be the instructor starting Tuesday, January 13, from 1:30 until 3:30 p.m. These classes will be held each Tuesday through February 17. The first hour will be devoted to demonstrating simple methods of clothing construction. The remainder of the time will be devoted to helping individuals with personal fitting problems. There is no charge for this service.

Deaths

GEORGE J. HARTMAN
George Joseph Hartman, 41, husband of Mrs. Dorothy (Cromer) Hartman, died yesterday at his home on Country Club Road, LaVale.

Born in Philadelphia, he had resided in suburban Bridgeport, W. Va., before locating here last July as a sales representative of the Philip Carey Manufacturing Company.

Mr. Hartman was a veteran of World War II. He held membership in St. Ambrose Catholic Church, Cresaptown, the Frostburg Rotary Club and Elks Lodge 482 of Clarksburg, W. Va.

Survivors, besides his widow, include a daughter, Jo-Annamarie Hartman, at home; a brother, Frank Hartman, Morris-town, N. J., and a sister, Mrs. Theodore Blanchard, Drexel Hills, Pa.

The body is at the Knight Oak-lawn Mortuary, 200 National Highway, where the family will receive friends from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m.

Prayers will be recited at the funeral home Sunday at 8 p.m. and burial services will be conducted Monday at 1 p.m. at Arlington National Cemetery.

Full military rites will be accorded at graveside.

ROBERT L. WOLFE
OAKLAND — Robert Lee Wolfe, 69, of here, died yesterday in Garrett County Memorial Hospital after an illness of several months.

A native of Oakland, he was a son of the late John A. and Julia (Smithman) Wolfe. Mr. Wolfe was a member of St. Peter's Catholic Church, the Holy Name Society and was a 30-year member of the Oakland Fire Company.

He is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Theresia Martin, Oakland, and Mrs. Anna Slawbaugh, Akron, Ohio.

A requiem mass will be celebrated Monday at 9:30 a.m. at St. Peter's Church by Rev. Gerald LaPorta, assistant pastor. Burial will be in Oakland Cemetery.

The body is at the Minnich Funeral Home.

Dag Continues Tour

CAIRO (UPI) — United Nations Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjöld flew to Benghazi, Libya, Thursday for a one-day visit on his general tour of the Middle East. He is scheduled to continue to Rome Friday.

Three Local Youths End Marine Training

Three local youths recently completed 12 weeks of basic training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, Parris Island, S.C. They are Pfc. Rodney L. Hiatt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jess E. Hiatt, 904 Kentucky Avenue; Pfc. Ronald D. Imes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin D. Imes, 201 Laing Avenue; and Pfc. Glavis P. Summerfield, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Summerfield of 1108 Kentucky Avenue.

The youths are now undergoing combat training at Camp Lejeune, N.C.

share. Also chartered by the State Tax Commission was the Lonaconing Health Center Inc., whose incorporators are William C. Smith, 17 Allegany Street, Lonaconing; Gertrude G. Albright, Watercliff Street, Lonaconing, and Gladys M. Brown, Furnace Street, Lonaconing.

This corporation, without capital stock, was formed to provide to the community medical services in conjunction with the program operated by the Allegany County Health Department including treatment, diagnostic service and other allied services designed to promote the health of the citizens of Lonaconing, especially those who are indigent.

A third corporation chartered by the State Tax Commission is the Mac Company, whose incorporators are Wesley A. McGraw, McMullen Highway; Kenneth W. McGraw, 4001 Greenway, Baltimore, and William O. Doub, 917 Rolandvue Road, Baltimore.

This corporation, with 500 shares of capital stock at no par value, has been organized to buy, own, hold, sell and convey, exchange, encumber, lease or otherwise deal in real estate or personal chattels, equities, mortgages and options. W. A. McGraw is the resident agent.

Also incorporated was Philo Lodge No. 91, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, whose incorporators are William J. Fazendaker and Ernest C. Hitt, both of Westernport, and Beryl Dunnivan, Piedmont.

One of the objectives of this corporation, also with no capital stock, is the maintenance of a club room and lodge hall for the purpose of promoting fellowship in a fraternal organization. Earl E. Manges, 120 S. Liberty Street, this city, is the resident agent.

All of these corporation papers were approved by the State Tax Commission last July but were just received at the clerk's office here yesterday.

Sports Car Club To Install

The Western Maryland Sports Car Club will install new officers at a dinner meeting today at 6:30 p. m. at the Cumberland Country Club.

The new officers include Herman J. Melotti, president; Raymond Twaites Jr., vice president; Mrs. Irene Weaver, secretary; John C. Pevear, treasurer, and Albert Kuehn and Christian M. Frey, activities co-chairmen.

The club also will present a plaque to M. C. Weaver, Bowling Green, for being the high point driver in the club for 1958.

The program will include the showing of films of past grand prix races.

Kick Injuries Fatal

FOGGIA, Italy (UPI) — Rocco Acquaviva, 7, was killed by the kick of a mule Wednesday when he walked too close to a watering trough.

PE Expert Will Talk On Area Development

Members of the Cumberland Chamber of Commerce are being invited to attend a meeting of the Tri-State Traffic Club January 14 at 6:30 p. m. in Ali Ghan Shrine Country Club.

B. G. Atwood, Hagerstown, manager of the Area Development Department of the Potomac Edison Company, will be the speaker at the dinner meeting. Mr. Atwood will speak on "What other communities are doing in industrial and area development."

In urging attendance at the meeting, the Chamber stressed Mr. Atwood's acknowledged leadership in the field of community industrial development.

Mr. Atwood and the Potomac Edison Company, the Chamber said, have been constant advisors to the Chamber's Industrial Development department and a source of leads which the department follows in its quest for new industries.

Dystrophy Drive Contributions Over $2,000

Contributions received in the recent muscular dystrophy drive in Allegany and Garrett counties have passed the $2,000 mark, with additional donations yet to be turned in to drive officials.

Thus far the coins from canisters distributed in Cumberland and Frostburg as well as the house-to-house canvass here and donations received by mail have been sorted and bagged at Central Fire Station and taken to the Second National Bank to be counted.

Fire Chief Virgil A. Parker, chairman of the two-county chapter for MD, said yesterday a full report on the contributions should be completed by next week.

He said the money received thus far was deposited in the bank by him and Rudolph Kompanek, treasurer of the chapter. Proceeds of the house-to-house canvass in Frostburg in charge of Mrs. Nell Kennedy will be turned over for tabulation to Chief Parker who said that canisters still out in the two counties as well as special donations from commerce and industry will make the campaign a successful endeavor.

Alvin Rankin was in charge of canisters in the two-county area. Volunteer fire companies that still have canisters are asked to return them to Mr. Rankin at Frostburg or Chief Parker at Central Fire Station here.

Something Can Be Done About Smog

With an insistence increasing since World War II, many people have been wondering when the automobile industry would cope effectively with the problem of exhaust fumes from gasoline engines.

In recent months, the anguished cries of smog-enveloped Los Angeles, in the heart of proverbially sunny California, have been heard throughout the continent. Probably they have had more effect in spearheading anti-pollution research than any outbreak of community outrage since Pittsburgh and its coal smoke pollution problem.

Now, according to a Detroit reporter, devices to control exhaust fumes from automobiles could be available within a year. He reports that a joint committee of engineers from all the major auto companies has evolved a method which has advanced from research to the product development stage.

The time needed for the market development of the device, which involves the filtering of hydrocarbon gases, is not definitely known, and there are hints that several major problems must be solved before it can be installed on cars. One of these is how to get the motorist to pay the cost (roughly estimated at $75) of a device aimed at making his car more acceptable to others rather than to himself.

But once a device is available even at extra cost to cut down on noxious fumes from private cars, trucks and buses, laws setting strict but realistic emission limits might be accepted and even demanded by the public.

At any rate, it's a happy sign that the industry has taken notice of the exhaust fume menace and its relation to the smog which hangs over larger communities. When this problem and the allied one of noise have been solved, cities can become more healthful places to live in and the automotive era can be said to have come of age at last.

These Days

Mikoyan

It is customary that when a top official of one country wishes to visit another country on official business, arrangements are made well in advance, an agenda is prepared and neither side is taken by surprise. Anastas Mikoyan is playing games. He comes to the United States as a tourist who walks about the streets looking in shop windows. No official reception is prepared for him although he is either the second or third person in the Soviet hierarchy and is entitled to such courtesies. He announces that he will see Secretary of State Dulles, apparently invited or not, but the earlier statements on that subject give the impression that he wanted to see the Secretary of State just as he gazed upon the Washington Monument. However, after he had gazed at the Secretary of State for 95 minutes, he told the reporters, "There will be peace," which is good news, indeed. Dulles, of course, said nothing which was quite proper in the circumstances.

Apparently Eric Johnston, who has been to Soviet Russia to peddle American motion picture films, and Cyrus Eaton, who presents the Russian point of view more glibly than anyone else in this country—also more glibly—knew of all this, for they had arranged receptions for the Armenian trader. That, of course, is their business. There is no compulsory association in this country and no one is required to break bread with Anastas Mikoyan or anyone else unless he wants to. If Congressman Walter Judd declines to eat with a man who has Mikoyan's reputation for participation in mass murder, that is his business, too. Other men are not so choosy.

So, Mikoyan, the trader, has already found American traders who believe that as long as there is business to be done, let us welcome the stranger even if he breaks every rule of etiquette and barges in on us, with the fanfare of the lunatic's publicity to frighten those to whom dollars are more dear than life. Somehow the lunik did not frighten the American people nor does Mikoyan's sneer. Maybe we are through with being frightened.

Mikoyan is a trader. He has devoted his life to trade. He comes of a nation that is particularly skilled at trade. He understands money and its operations as well as and probably better than most Wall Street bankers. He is now, as a matter of Soviet policy, engaged in destroying the pre-eminence of the American dollar. His genius as a trader has undoubtedly served him politically, for he worked under Lenin, Stalin, Malenkov and Khrushchev and survived. He never was caught in any of the purges. His closest colleagues—Bulgarian, Kaganovich, Molotov—they have disappeared in the vastnesses of the Soviet Universal State, but Mikoyan survives even under Khrushchev who is as fast on the draw as Stalin was but leaves nothing to clean up afterwards.

It takes great skill always to land on your feet and Mikoyan possesses that skill. And so the Armenian came to the United States to show all the diplomats of the world that he can break through the reserves and resistances of the American Government to betray our allies and meet with the Russians alone. Khrushchev's labors for a Summit Conference always were premised on the assumption that he and Eisenhower could meet alone and settle everything. But we do belong to NATO and we have allies whom we will not betray.

Mikoyan met with Dulles alone without an advance agenda so that we could not notify our allies what the conversations would be about. The American policy is not being decided by Eric Johnston or by Cyrus Eaton, traders in their own right. Nor is it being decided by Senator Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota who apparently has a special relationship with Khrushchev and Mikoyan, which also is the Senator's business, although it strikes me that Khrushchev must have a lot of time on his hands to give the Senator eight hours, which, according to the American standard, is a full working day. Senator Humphrey is an interesting man, but is he that interesting? Also, is he that important in the affairs of the United States?

Funny things are going on and lots of funny people are in the occurrences, but in the end, orderly procedures will prevail and the United States will be treated with the respect and dignity we deserve.

Will Congress Do Something About Defense?

WASHINGTON

The latest and most impressive Soviet rocket-launching is only one more proof that national defense ought to be the over-riding issue in the new Congressional session. For once in a way, moreover, what ought to happen in theory may almost happen in fact.

All the ablest and best informed leaders of Congress, reading from Sen. Stiles Bridges on the right to Sen. Hubert Humphrey on the left, have returned to Washington in a mood of active, vocal, almost angry disquiet about national defense problems. There is hardly a trace, any longer, of the old willingness to "leave defense to Ike." Except for one or two old faithfuls like Sen. Leverett Saltonstall, the more influential law-makers all more or less deeply distrust the President's budget-minded defense planning.

There are two quite practical reasons for this novel distrust. First, the Congressional chieftains are far more aware than the general public of the enormous fraud practiced in the post-Sputnik period. They know, in fact, that the pretended increase of the American defense effort after the Sputniks was really nothing but an increase of defense publicity.

In the fog of press releases, even the most knowing men on The Hill took some time to perceive that the Sputniks' challenge was not being answered with any great effort or investment that had not been previously programmed. But they have perceived it now, as they could hardly fail to do. Three days after the Soviet moon probe, the President himself blandly told the White House meeting of Congressional leaders that his 1960 defense budget would actually be somewhat less than his 1959 budget.

Everyone reacts in a different way to illness or injury. Some recover completely whereas others develop serious emotional difficulties that prove to be a greater handicap than the original ailment. Between these extremes is a wide range of reactions, depending upon the personality of the individual. Disability is likely to be prolonged when the victim derives secondary gains, such as compensation, from his misfortune. An operation that usually is successful in eliminating a civilian's backache may never work when performed on a soldier or a working man who has a grudge and is looking for compensation.

An invalid often reverts to immature methods of handling his problems. He craves attention and may behave like a child to minimize his anxieties and distress. Some become emotionally upset when the injury or illness recalls previous incidents that occurred to them or their families. If a heart attack develops in a man whose father died of a similar lesion, the son fears the same fate is in store for him.

A hospitalized newspaper man went to pieces when told a special lung test was needed. He thought immediately of lung cancer and became convinced it meant the end of his career. Others enjoy the service and attention previously denied them or use the disability to punish those who have neglected them.

Gas accumulates in air swallows and in those whose digestive juices encourage excessive fermentation. A poorly functioning gall bladder, for example, may not supply the amount of bile needed to assimilate fats in the diet.

GALL BLADDER AND FATS
G. L. writes: Is a low cholesterol diet good for gall bladder disease?
REPLY
No. Bile contains cholesterol but the amount of this constituent is affected by the diet. In addition there is no relationship between cholesterol and gall bladder disease. A low fat diet (which also is low in cholesterol) frequently is advised in gall bladder patients.

The figures are $40,850,000,000 of requested appropriations, against $41,140,000,000 last time. These are staggering figures. The Congressional chieftains might worry less about the neglect of the Sputniks' challenge, if they were not increasingly aware of the detailed defense facts.

A year ago, for instance, few people in Washington would have paid much attention to Brig. Gen. Thomas Phillips' article on "The Growing Missile Gap" in "The Reporter," or to Albert Wohlstetter's article on "The Delicate Balance of Terror" in "Foreign Affairs." Now a great many people are asking questions about these articles, and so they should.

Gen. Phillips, one of the best defense experts in the business, paints the darkest picture of the missile gap that has been traced by any informed brush. Some of Phillips' facts are questioned at the Pentagon, quite properly as a result of the corruption of intelligence analysis. But as Chief of the War Projects Division of the semi-official Rand Corp., Wohlstetter belongs, in effect, to an annex of the Air Force Planning Staff. Not even a Pentagon press office can question Wohlstetter's knowledge of the defense facts.

After denouncing this allegedly gloom-prone reporter as an "unwarranted optimist," Wohlstetter, the government-employed expert, bleakly remarks that "we must expect a vast increase in the weight of attack which the Soviets can deliver with little or no warning."

Therefore, he says, "strategic deterrence, while feasible, will be extremely difficult to achieve." He concludes, in effect, that the United States "may not have the power to deter attack" at "critical junctures in the 1960s," if we go on as we are going.

This plain warning of a possible failure of the American strategic deterrent is plainly confirmed by signs in the Pentagon, such as the rising talk about "minimum deterrence." Minimum deterrence means nothing more nor less than a strategy of killing the Soviet Union with a few big, dirty H-bombs, thrown in the death rattle after this country and almost all its striking forces have been killed already. Behind the theory of minimum deterrence, there is nothing more or less than flabby, helpless acceptance of the gravest sort of inferiority to the Soviets in strategic striking power.

Wohlstetter's warning is also confirmed by the Kremlin's threat to Berlin, which can only be countered by complete readiness to fight a big war. Nikita Khrushchev would hardly be making this kind of threat if he did not think the military balance was sharply tilting in his favor, and if he did not expect the West's answer to be influenced by the tilt of the military balance.

In this, one hopes, Khrushchev has miscalculated. Thus far, the Western response to the threat to Berlin seems likely to be completely firm. The crisis arising from this threat is also likely to give just the needed extra push to the existing Congressional impulse to do something about national defense before it is too late.

Armour Foundation researcher Ethaline Cortelyou told the American Association for the Advancement of Science that human brains have no sex. Some are not functional at all.

Mrs. Cortelyou also said that only 8 per cent of newborn babies are potential geniuses. It's a shame to waste genius on people not old enough to do anything with it.

Scientific women are suspect in our society, Mrs. Cortelyou said. Well, you've got to admit that women with heads that turn figures don't get as much attention as women with figures that turn heads.

One thing that holds back women scientists is, men don't like having women around who might be smarter than they. But where there's a wife there's a way.

It's not how well you plot a curve. It's how well you use the plot and the curve.

Employers should learn that the female brain can be as profitably useful as the male brain, Mrs. Cortelyou claims. The trouble is, most women are hired on sight.

The hand that rocks the cradle rules the world. Now it wants to slide rule it, too.

By Dr. Theodore R. Van Dellen

This reaction was unexpected because he always had been stable and optimistic. His wife supplied the answer when she reminded us that he had just interviewed a prominent man who was dying of carcinoma of the lung.

Some persons who are permanently disabled become emotionally upset should a new procedure be devised that offers a cure. The thought of re-entering the competitive world is too much to take because of the possibility of failure. Their disability always has afforded an excuse for lack of accomplishment and they know that if the handicap were corrected, they could not live up to expectations.

Others enjoy the service and attention previously denied them or use the disability to punish those who have neglected them.

Former Vice President's Grandson Will Be Next Secretary Of Navy

By Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON — Able, popular James H. Smith Jr., who agreed to head the unpopular International Cooperation Administration after 20 others had turned it down, will soon collect his reward.

He has been promised a whirl as Secretary of the Navy, one of the most glittering jobs in Washington. With it go pomp, prestige, and the Naval yacht Sequoia.

Smith has already dropped by the Pentagon to inspect his plush new office, guarded by gold-brained aides. He will replace Thomas S. Gates Jr., who was notified a few weeks ago that he would have to step aside to give someone else a turn as Secretary. Gates was rather glad to get back to Philadelphia anyway. He has done an A-1 job in the Navy Department but is anxious to resume his job as a Drexel partner (J. P. Morgan), also as trustee of the University of Pennsylvania. Furthermore, he's a bit fed up with Eisenhower operations.

Smith, who will replace him, is the grandson of Vice President Levi Morton (Benjamin Harrison administration), more famous as founder of Morton's Salt ("It Pours"). Smith served under Truman as special assistant secretary of the Navy and accepted the thankless job of foreign aid administrator under Eisenhower. Unneutral White House

Despite pretenses of neutrality, the White House did not remain aloof in the bitter battle between Joe Martin, 74, of Massachusetts, and Charlie Halleck, 57, of Indiana for the GOP leadership of the House. Ike et al pulled wires vigorously behind the scenes for Halleck.

In fact, the drive for Halleck was launched about six weeks ago at a secret White House meeting attended by Halleck and presidential aides Jerry Morgan and Jack Anderson. Edward A. McCabe, assistant counsel to Eisenhower, was also present.

They planned the strategy for the Halleck campaign, decided to canvass the 153 House Republicans for the necessary votes to unseat Martin from the leadership post he had held for 20 years. The canvassing job was then turned over to three Halleck adherents — GOP Congressmen Robert Wilson of California, Gerald Ford of Michigan, and John Byrnes of Wisconsin.

This trio began a barrage of long-distance telephoning to GOP colleagues, most of them at home for Christmas.

The anti-Martin campaign reached a climax at a big "pep" session several days ago at the Congressional Hotel, attended by 35 Halleck supporters.

Halleck showed up as the secret confab was ending, with a press statement he had already written, announcing his candidacy.

"This isn't a liberal-conservative fight, like we are witnessing in the Senate," he told the meeting. "It is a fight for more aggressive, more positive leadership than we have been getting in the House. Joe Martin promised me four years ago that he would step aside as leader. I'm ready now to put the issue to a test, I believe I have the votes to win, but I win or lose, I intend to stay in this fight to the bitter end."

Related Phone Calls

Martin forces were also busily belatedly. Martin phoned for support. He even went to the extent of phoning GOP Rep. Frances Bolton of Ohio while she was eating lunch in the House restaurant. But the situation looked so desperate it was decided to negotiate a "truce."

Following a strategy session in Martin's office, House GOP whip Les Arends of Illinois called on Halleck with a proposal that Martin would step down as chairman of the GOP Policy Committee and agree to name Halleck assistant floor leader — if the Hoosier would get out of the race.

Halleck turned the offer down. At another Martin strategy session, Rep. Dick Simpson of Pennsylvania angrily told Pennsylvania Republicans that Martin was a victim of "White House connivance."

"The White House was supposed to remain 'hands off' in this fight, but it hasn't," he charged. "The President, at least some of his top advisers, have been secretly supporting Charlie Halleck. I don't like to use harsh words, but it looks like Joe Martin is getting a double-cross by White House aides after all he has done to support the President's program in Congress."

"Poor Old Joe"

Following Simpson's impassioned statement, Pennsylvania Republicans voted solidly to support Martin.

Rep. Clarence Brown of Ohio, another Martin supporter, also made a strong appeal to Ohio Republicans.

"What are they trying to do, kick old Joe in the teeth after all the years and faithful service he has given to our party?" demanded Brown. "This thing is not only an insult to Joe, it is bad for the party. Joe has told me that he has decided to serve only two more years and then retire as leader. Can't Charlie Halleck wait that long?"

"We have heard that before, Clarence," spoke up Rep. William Ayres of Akron. "He said he was going to step aside four years ago, but didn't. We don't want to go all through this again."

"I think I speak for a majority of House Republicans in saying that we want a change, and we want it now. If Charlie Halleck has the votes — and then he is entitled to be the floor leader. I don't want to do anything to hurt Joe Martin, but the time has come for him to step aside."

Note — Vice President Richard Nixon, like the White House, denied to friends that he had any hand in the House leadership battle. However, one of the principal Halleck supporters, Rep. Wilson of California, is a Nixon protégé who seldom makes a move without calling Dick.

Jim Bishop: Reporter

By Jim Bishop

MIAMI, Florida—We met the Champion at Newark. The Red Cap studied the pile of luggage, the infant twins, the strollers, and us. "Let's not even count it," he said. "Just call it a truckload." So we called it a truckload and he piled the typewriter, the hat boxes, the valises, the boxes of Chux, on a hand-truck and somehow, we, the baggage and the babies all made the train.

Mr. Brown was the porter in car A-151. He knew more about how to take care of five-month-old twin girls on a train than the parents. He isn't young, but he has a memory for babies. He opened a berth across the compartment, and laid them crosswise on it. "That way," he said, "when the train start and stop, they can't fall."

All afternoon and all night and part of the next day, the Florida East Coast Champion emitted a subdued roar. The cars swung around the big curves at Baltimore and Washington and Richmond. In the middle of the night, Rocky Mount and Charleston and Savannah went by the big windows like stereoscopic slides. In the morning, Jacksonville.

Did this bother the tender little girls? They slept like kittens and ate like tigers. Ginny and Charlie were afraid that the heating of bottles and vegetables might be a problem. It wasn't. Bill Campbell, a stocky man with a big smile, was chief steward in the dining car.

"Twin girls?" he said to Charlie. "What's their names?" Robin and Pamela? Okay. We'll refrigerate the bottles and the vegetables. You give us a ten-minute warning and we'll heat whatever you want. In fact, if you need anything at all, we'll do our best."

Charlie Frechette grinned. "You must be the father of girls," he said understandingly.

Mr. Campbell shook his head. "The reason I love baby girls, is that I'm the father of boys. I have four. Starting with the youngest, they are six, eight, ten and twenty-three."

"Why the big gap?" said Charlie.

Bill Campbell slapped his thigh and roared laughing. "Train was late," he said.

The Champion loaded into

Miami in the afternoon. Tom Ferris met us and looked at the luggage and said: "Maybe we better get a cab for that." We got a cab. Mr. Ferris is an executive of the Mackle Brothers corporation, which owns Key Biscayne Hotel.

He worked with Steve Hannegan back in the days when Miami Beach was a group of shapely high school girls and a lot of sand.

The Key is five miles south of Miami Beach, and less noisy. The Frachets and Gayle and her father drew Villa 66, a three-bedroom beach house with kitchen, air conditioning and a view of the ocean. The bellman said that Mr. and Mrs. Richard Nixon had lived here a few weeks ago.

"Which bed?" said Gayle Peggy. "I want to sleep in the vice president's bed."

"If you don't stop talking," Ginny said, "you'll be sleeping in a crib. Help me with the babies."

Gayle is good with her nieces. She likes to feed them; she has patience when they are slow with their bottles; she burps them; she nibbles behind their ears; she tucks them in and baby sits. She wants no pay, no thanks.

The babies are beginning to show differences in personality, even though they are identical twins. Pamela is fat—16 pounds—and serene. She hums herself to sleep. Robin is 15 pounds—a roughhouse Rosy who likes to be tossed in the air and who has devilry in her eyes. They arrived at Key Biscayne wearing saddle shoes. The shoes were about as long as my pinky.

Little by little, they are becoming aware of each other. On the train, I looked up from a book in time to see Robin chewing on Pam's hand. When one cries, the other doesn't even look up. After their bottles, their mother places them flat on a bed, and spoons the vegetables to one little mouth, then the other, and then back to the first just before that one cries. It is no time, I assure you, for mommy to have an itchy nose. The temperature is 77. Skies are sunny. The roast beef is beautiful. This is my first vacation with my tiny girls. We understand each other. . . .

Cranberry Nut Bread Adds New Interest To Menus

As every clever homemaker knows, the ideal way to add interest to menus and still retain the flavorful tradition of old is to prepare new and novel recipes with seasonal fresh fruits.

One of these recipes, popular for its tastiness and versatility, is Cranberry Nut Bread. Made with tart cranberries, ready-to-eat whole bran cereal and grated orange rind, this delectable bread is a perfect meal accompaniment — both on the table and in the lunch box.

Cranberry Nut Bread

1 cup fresh cranberries
1 cup sugar
1 cup bran cereal
1 cup milk
1 egg, slightly beaten
2 tablespoons shortening

melted
1 tablespoon grated orange rind
2½ cups sifted flour
4 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
½ cup chopped nuts

Put cranberries through food chopper; mix with ¼ cup of the sugar. Combine bran, milk, egg and orange rind; let stand until most of moisture is taken up. Sift together flour, baking powder, salt and remaining sugar; combine with nuts. Add to bran mixture together with cranberries and shortening, stirring only until combined. Spread evenly in greased 9½ x 5½-inch loaf pan. Bake in moderate oven (375 degrees F.) about 1 hour. Let stand until cold before slicing.

Cranberry Ice Cream Pie

1½ cups crushed vanilla wafers
½ cup finely chopped walnuts
¼ cup melted butter or margarine
1 cup fresh cranberries
1 orange, quartered and seeded
¾ cup sugar
1 pint vanilla ice cream, softened

Combine first 3 ingredients and blend well. Press into 8-inch pie pan to form pie shell. Chill. Put cranberries and orange (including peel), through food chopper. Stir in sugar. Blend cranberry mixture into softened ice cream. Pour into chilled crust; freeze firm. Garnish with whipped cream and whole cooked cranberries.

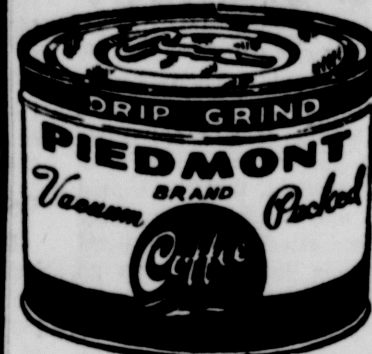

Jellied Plum Pudding

2 cups Cherry Gelatin
2 cups hot water
2 cups cold water
Dash of salt
¼ teaspoon cinnamon
1 cup finely cut raisins
1 cup finely cut cooked prunes
½ cup finely cut citron
1 cup finely chopped nut meats
1 cup Grape Nuts

Dissolve gelatin in hot water. Add cold water. Pour 1 cup into mold or mixing bowl. Chill until firm. Chill remaining gelatin until slightly thickened. Then add salt, spices, fruits, nuts, and Grape Nuts. Turn onto firm gelatin in mold. Chill until firm. Unmold. Serve with sweetened whipped cream. Makes 12 to 14 servings.

Speedy Cake Frosting

Speedy Cereal Flake Cake Frosting is an easy way to dress up a cake mix. Spice cake, applesauce cake, banana cake, and many other kinds take on added interest and appeal when topped with this cereal flake frosting. It gives just the right amount of sweetness for morning coffee hour refreshments. For afternoon, dessert, or evening refreshments the Corn Flake Crunch Topping, a sweeter variety might be preferred.

Breakfast cereals not only add variety, flavor, and texture when used as an ingredient in recipes, but they make contributions of protein, B vitamins, essential minerals and food energy.

Speedy Cereal Flake Frosting

2 egg whites, room temperature
1½ cup brown sugar, well-packed
1½ cup corn syrup, light or dark
1½ teaspoon salt
1½ cups corn flakes

Beat egg whites and salt to soft peak stage. Add sugar a tablespoon at a time, beat well after each addition. Heat syrup to boiling point only. Do not cook. Add hot syrup to eggs in a fine stream, beating constantly. Beat until mixture forms stiff peaks. Spread on cake layers. Sprinkle with corn flakes. Serve as is, or broil until flakes are delicate brown.

Yield: Topping for two 8 or 9-inch cake layers.

Corn Flake Crunch Topping

Prepare frosting as above. Sprinkle cake layers with corn flake crunch instead of corn flakes. To make crunch heat 2 tablespoons butter and ¼ cup lump-free brown sugar together until sugar melts. Toss 2 cups corn flakes in mixture until flakes are coated. Spread onto waxed paper, separate flakes, and cool. Yield: Crunch for two 8 or 9-inch layers.

Cheese Spread Variety For The Lunchbox

Variety is the keynote of well planned menus, and makes meal time fun for young and old alike. If you pack a lunch for some member of your family, whether it's a child in school or the family breadwinner, don't let your menus get in a rut. Keep the lunchbox full of surprises.

When sandwiches are the mainstay of your packed lunch, make the fillings both interesting and nutritious. Be generous with the amount of filling used, for this sandwich should supply the protein for the noonday meal. Vary the kind of bread, to avoid a repetitious look to the lunch. And spread the bread with butter — for added flavor and to help prevent moist fillings from soaking into the bread.

Cheese is an ideal sandwich filling. The nutritive value of this dairy food puts it high on the list of lunchbox favorites. You may choose from among many varieties on the market — then use the cheese alone or as the base of an unusual sandwich filling. The mild flavored cheeses blend well with many other foods. Chopped meat or fish, diced raw vegetables, soft fruits or spicy relishes may be added as a flavor surprise. Here are several recipes for unusual sandwich fillings, each using a different mild cheese as the base. Try these, or make up combinations of your own family's favorite foods.

Tuna Cheese Spread

2 3-ounce packages cream cheese
1 7-ounce can tuna fish, drained and flaked
¼ cup mayonnaise
¼ cup minced onion
2 tablespoons lemon juice
¼ teaspoon pepper

Beat cream cheese until soft. Add remaining ingredients and beat until well blended. Spread on buttered bread to make sandwiches. Makes 6 servings.

Cheese-Prune Spread

1 cup shredded American cheese
2 cups chopped cooked prunes
1 tablespoon sugar
Dash of salt
2 tablespoons lemon juice
¼ cup chopped nuts

Mix all ingredients together. Spread on buttered bread to

Cookies Make A Perfect Snack During Afternoon

Ask any homemaker and she'll tell you that, when it comes to snacks at this time of year, keeping the larger stocked is truly a difficult task. For, no matter whether it's a football game, a hike in the country or just an afternoon of raking leaves or cleaning the car, autumn activities stimulate appetites for mid-afternoon snacks.

Many homemakers have found the solution to their problem in a well-filled cookie jar since nothing satisfies mid-day hunger pangs better than cookies. And, an easy-does-it way to have cookie variety with minimum effort is to choose a recipe from which several kinds of cookies can be made. One such recipe is for Ginger Crisps, a delectable treat which blends the goodness of whole bran cereal and molasses with the flavor of tangy spices.

Ginger Crisps And Variation

2 cups sifted flour
2 teaspoons baking soda
½ teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1 teaspoon ginger
¾ cup soft butter or margarine
1¼ cups sugar
1 egg
¼ cup molasses
1 cup all-bran

Sift together flour, soda, salt and spices. Blend butter and one cup of the sugar; add egg and beat well. Stir in molasses, sifted dry ingredients and All-Brans. Form dough into balls about 1 inch in diameter; roll in remaining ¼ cup sugar. Place about 3 inches apart on ungreased baking sheets. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) about 15 minutes.

Yield: 5 dozen cookies, about 3 inches in diameter.
Cinnamon: Mix 1½ teaspoons cinnamon with remaining ¼ cup sugar before rolling balls of dough.

Pears Florentine

8 cooked or canned pear halves
½ cup white wine
Few cloves
1 6-oz. jar hard sauce
Grated bitter chocolate

Cover pears with their own juice and heat in saucepan with wine and cloves. When pears are heated through, cool, then chill in juice. To serve, fill pear cavities with hard sauce and put two halves together to simulate whole fruit. Sprinkle with grated bitter chocolate. Serve juice separately to be spooned over if desired. Makes four portions.

"It's Mr. Mofkin from next door. He wants to know if we'd like our walk cleared."

Drab kitchen cabinets, work needn't be expensive. Plastic counters and furnishings make a kitchen a depressing place in coat of paint will do wonders which to work. Perking it up for a dismal room.

Spanish Sherries Are Both Dry And Sweet

A common belief in England and America is that sherries are sweet, but the vast majority of those drunk in Spain, the home of sherry, are dry. These dry sherries are all of the fino type, the most familiar of these being the amontillado, which has a distinctive, nutty flavor. Even drier is manzanilla, a fine that matures on the seacoast and is said to be the driest wine in the world. All sweet sherries are of the oloroso type, and are generally called cream or brown sherries.

Entertaining Idea

An elegant and very easy way to entertain large groups is to give a Spanish sherry party — instead of a tea party. Along with a selection of sherries, say a very dry fino and a sweet, mellow cream (oloroso) sherry, serve watercress sandwiches, salted nuts and thin slices of fruit cake, perhaps petit fours or sweet cookies as well. This is a vogue that started in the Tidewater section of Virginia and has been spreading all over the South.

Nesselrode Pudding Good In Winter Time

The essence of winter feasting — from heat and pour half of the this describes a gorgeous new confection that deserves to make its debut! It's Frozen Nesselrode Pudding, a light creamy dessert to wreathe in holly and serve with your very best hot coffee.

Nesselrode Pudding is exactly right — it's cool and luscious, filled to the brim with chopped fruits and nuts. There's pineapple, cherries, golden raisins, pecans — and just a hint of rum flavoring. Best of all, you can make it the day before in your prettiest individual molds and freeze it overnight. When turned out on a large platter, your dessert will be the crowning touch to the happiest day of the year!

Strong, freshly-brewed coffee is the best flavor companion for your confection. Be sure to make enough for dessert — and then some more to take in the living room. It's the perfect way to end the perfect meal.

Frozen Nesselrode Pudding

1 cup sugar
1 cup water
1½ cups honey-flavored rice cereal
2 egg whites
1 tablespoon white corn syrup
1 can (9 oz.) crushed pineapple, drained
20 maraschino cherries
1 cup heavy cream
¼ cup golden raisins
¼ cup finely chopped pecans
1 teaspoon imitation rum flavoring

Combine sugar and water in a saucepan, stirring constantly until sugar dissolves. Cook to 248 degrees, or hard ball stage. Remove syrup over cereal. Mix lightly until cereal is coated; spread on waxed paper to cool. Beat egg whites stiff and slowly pour remaining hot syrup into egg whites, beating constantly until mixture is cold and stands in sharp peaks. Drain pineapple; cut cherries in half. Whip cream. Stir cream, raisins, pecans, pineapple, cherries, flavoring and cereal into beaten egg white mixture. Spoon mixture into individual molds; freeze until firm. Unmold. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

Shrimps In Sherry

(very dry) type, with ¼ teaspoon thickeners. Combine the sauce with salt, for 5 minutes after the the shelled shrimp and chill. From an old cook book, "The Compleat Housewife," published in 1739, comes a recipe for shell and devein. Meantime, add glasses of chilled fino sherry, shrimp that sounds as new as the hot sherry stock gradually to this makes 4 to 6 first course 1959. Cook ¾ pounds shrimp (you 2 egg yolks and 2 tablespoons servings, wonderfully elegant for can use fresh or frozen) in ½ butter, heating constantly. Cook a party or as a starter for dinner. Spanish sherry of the fino and stir over low heat until sauce ner.

Romney Home Damaged By $7,500 Fire

ROMNEY — Fire badly damaged a residence property here Wednesday while the occupant was a patient at Memorial Hospital, Cumberland.

Arno Shingleton, assistant fire chief of the Romney Volunteer Fire Company said the brick dwelling on Bolton Street in that community suffered approximately $7,500 damage.

The home is owned by Mrs. A. Z. Ewers, Romney, and has been occupied by Mrs. George Bean, who is a patient in the local hospital. Mrs. Bean is the mother of Mrs. James Andrews, South Street here.

Chief Shingleton said the fire apparently started from an overheated furnace since the flooring over the stove was burned through. The flames spread through air ducts to the second floor of the home, he added.

Damage to the house itself was placed at $4,500, while an estimated $3,000 loss was set on the furnishings. The home was partially covered by insurance, Chief Shingleton said.

Child Who Won Hearts Of Hundreds, Is Dead

FAIRMONT, W. Va. (UPI) — Marsha Bane, 2, the little girl with the heart disorder who won the hearts of people all over the country, died in a hospital here Thursday.

The child suddenly became ill paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Arley Bane. The cause of death was not immediately determined — whether it was from her heart disorder or from another cause.

Marsha underwent an operation at Cleveland Clinic about two months ago to repair an opening and a defective valve in her heart.

The Shinnston Junior Women's Club organized a campaign to raise funds to pay for Marsha's operation. Her father is unemployed. It was disclosed Wednesday that $4,100 was received from the drive, with contributions coming from as far away as Alaska.

Marsha's parents moved in with her parents just before Christmas because their home at Lumberport, Harrison County, had no furnace. They had moved there last September after he lost his job and their house at Morgantown.

Marsha's death occurred on the sixth birthday of her brother, Paul.

W.Va. Jobless Plight Aired

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (UPI) — The serious plight of West Virginia's jobless was noted Thursday in a report pointing out that 45,586 persons in the state had used unemployment compensation benefits in the past 18 months.

The Employment Security Department said more than 13,000 of them used up allotments allowed them under the state's regular program and a temporary three-month extension program.

Director Henry L. Ash said that during the last six months of 1958, 25,316 jobless persons had exhausted their state benefits, while 17,262 used up all the benefits of the state's program during the 1957-58 fiscal year.

Ash said $45,625,320 was paid out from the Unemployment Compensation Fund in benefits for the 18-month period from July 1, 1957, through last Dec. 31. A total of $55,251,901 was paid out under the temporary program.

The sharp increase in West Virginia's unemployment was first noticed in November, 1957, according to Ash. "The economic recession continued to deepen through the winter months of 1957 and 1958 before reaching its peak in May, 1958," he said.

Court Action Planned Over School Aid Cut

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (UPI) — Suit will be filed within a few days in behalf of school boards of some half a dozen West Virginia counties to test the legality of a recent 5 per cent in state aid to schools ordered by the Board of Public Works.

An authoritative source said Thursday the suit for a declaratory judgment, against the Board of Public Works and the State Board of School Finance, would be brought in Kanawha County Circuit Court here.

Expected to join in the suit, among others, are Wood, McDowell, Hardy and Wyoming Counties. It has been estimated that 25 or more counties might have to reduce their school terms under nine months because of the reduction in funds.

After the Board of Public Works ordered that all state spending units hold back 5 per cent of their appropriations for the current fiscal year due to lower-than-anticipated revenues, the Board of School Finance figured out how much that meant for each county.

The test suit, in which the West Virginia Education Assn., is acting as coordinator and is supplying legal advice, maintains that state school aid cannot be cut in the same manner as state spending by a state department or agency.

Fire Chief Files Report For Barton

BARTON — A yearly report of calls answered by the Barton Fire Company during 1958, has been submitted by Chief James Lamberson. A total of 18 fire calls were answered with an average of 18 men responding to each call. Approximately 52 miles were traveled and 607 man hours were involved.

Alarms included, motor vehicle, garages, farm buildings, private dwellings, a mine explosion, forest and brush fires and a search call.

Damage to buildings in the fire district was estimated at $6,150 and the value of the contents at $11,200. The company also responded to a call out of their district and a call out of their district was estimated at $6,000.

Heavy loss of property in the local district was due to a mine explosion and fire at the Gary Coal Company, Barton, on Saturday, March 29, 1958.

The company has also added to its fleet of fire fighting equipment during the year with the purchase of a new class A, rated, pump and tank combination truck which holds 1600 gallons of water with a mid-ship pump built on a 1958 GMC tandem with an automatic transmission.

A total of 12 fire drills were also held during the year.

Somerset County Readies Maple Syrup Production And Festival

MEYERSDALE, Pa. — Producers of maple syrup in Somerset County are now making plans for the annual maple season, which can be expected to open most anytime depending upon weather conditions.

Some years, the season comes early; other years, it is much later. Because of the bad winter last year, the season was later than usual.

Cold nights and warm, sunny days are just what the maple producer needs. When the temperature drops during the night to well below freezing and rises above freezing during the day, the maple sap runs freely.

Camps, located in the huge sugar groves throughout the county, are active then, with countless workers boiling the sap into quality maple syrup and many by-products such as fancy maple candies.

Just as those who own camps are busy preparing for the season ahead, the Meyersdale Chamber of Commerce is planning for the annual Somerset County Maple Festival to be held in Meyersdale on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, April 3, 4 and 5.

Many activities are planned for the three-day program. A community banquet, which will be attended by Rotarians, Lions, farmers and the general public will officially open the program on Friday, April 3, at 6 p.m. Another event planned for Friday evening will be the Queen's Ball.

On Saturday, April 4, two parades — a kiddies parade and the Maple Festival parade — will be highlights. On this day also, plans have been made for an old-time fiddlers' contest, an indoor maple show, a square dance and other events.

The coronation of Pennsylvania's Maple Queen will take place Sunday afternoon and a vesper service will also be held Sunday in one of the local churches.

Kent's Train Treks of Pittsburgh will bring a Maple Special to Meyersdale on Saturday, April 4, via the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. Some 700 persons will be on this train, arriving in Meyersdale at 11:30 a.m. and leaving at 9 p.m.

A sugar camp on the Main street of Meyersdale will show visitors how maple syrup is produced.

Seton Hall, Bonnies Win Games At Garden
NEW YORK (UPI)—Hugh Dunnion's one-handed jump shot with 12 seconds remaining gave Seton Hall a 57-55 victory over Muhlenberg and St. Bonaventure, one of the nation's four major unbeaten teams, beat Iona College, 68-54, in a basketball doubleheader Thursday at Madison Square Garden.

The 283 points scored by the two teams set a new NBA record for two teams in one game. The old mark of 282 was set by St. Louis and Syracuse at Detroit Dec. 21, 1957.

Fort Ashby Jayvees Win Over St. Luke's
The Fort Ashby High School junior varsity basketball team scored its fifth consecutive victory of the season last night, defeating St. Luke's of Cumberland by the score of 66-17.

Paul Price led the scorers of the winning team with 23 points while Miller was the runner-up with ten. Cox paced St. Luke's with six tallies.

George BonSalle, former 6-foot-8 Illinois center, is playing for the Denver D-C Truckers in the National Industrial Basketball League.

Bayard Whips Harman, 43-29
BAYARD, W. Va., Jan. 8 — Bayard High School notched its second win in a row and made its season record 5-1 by trimming Harman High School here tonight to the tune of 43-29.

Ronnie Kuhn slammed in eight field goals and 21 points for Coach Francis Maleonskie's quint. Roy was the chief point getter for Harman with 13 to his credit.

WMI League Teams Open Season Here

LaSalle Will Host Paw Paw; Six PVC Contests On Tap

A pair of undefeated teams, Valley High's Black Knights and Mt. Savage High's Indians come here tonight to test Fort Hill and Allegany as the Western Maryland Interscholastic Basketball League opens its 39th season.

Coach John Meyers' Black Knights have racked up seven straight wins, including Piedmont twice and Keyser and LaSalle each once, and in tangle with Fort Hill they'll be facing the schools they were ousted by last season in county championship race. The Sentinels bagged the title with a 9-1 record and Valley High won eight and lost two. Valley handed Fort Hill its lone setback in the league last season, winning the opener at Lonaconing, 50-38. Then Coach "Bobby" Cavanaugh's team closed with a nine-game victory string which included Valley's scalp, 58-40.

Under their new mentor, Wayne Boor, Fort Hill made very well to date and has bagged five wins in six outings. The Sentinels are right in the thick of the title fight in the Cumberland Valley Athletic League in which they own a 3-1 record.

After winning the W.M.I. crown last season, Fort Hill grabbed the C.V.A.L. title and made it a triple by capturing the Maryland Class "A" crown at College Park. Valley won the county Class "B" title but lost out in the tourney at the University of Maryland.

Mt. Savage Has 6-0 Mark
Mt. Savage, winless in ten league outings in 1958, comes to Campobello tonight with a 6-0 record. The Indians hold two decisions over Hancock and also whipped LaSalle, Oldtown, Hyndman and Ridgeley. Allegany is expected to be their toughest test to date.

Rounding out the first night's schedule in the W.M.I. loop is Bruce High's engagement with the Beall Mountaineers at Frostburg. The Bulldogs are 2-4 and Beall is 2-3 to date.

Officials for the games are Joe Stanislawski and John Fox at Fort Hill, Van Roby and Jack Burner at Allegany and Joe Wolfe and Pete Elliott at Frostburg.

Paw Paw At LaSalle
The third game in Cumberland tonight finds Paw Paw High School's Pirates, with a 7-1 record, battling George Getz's LaSalle High Explorers at St. Peter & Paul gym.

It will mark the first appearance of Glenn Smith here as mentor of the West Virginia quint. Glenn is a son of Evers Smith, one-time Piedmont High and Westvaco sharpshooter, and made his debut as Paw Paw coach this season.

This will be LaSalle's 10th start of the current campaign. The Explorers have won three games and lost six.

Six games are on tap in the Potomac Valley Conference and undefeated quints will see action in three of the contests.

Top Teams In Action
Clyde Green's Romney Pioneers, heading the procession with 5-0, will host the Petersburg Vikings (2-3). Gus Smith's Franklin High Panthers (4-0) figure to extend their winning streak when they play at Mathias (0-5) and Piedmont High's defending champions (3-0) invade Moorefield to tackle Johnny Paugh's Yellowjackets, who have split even in six league engagements.

In other P.V.C. games, Keyser (3-1) visits Elk Garden (0-4). Capon Bridge (2-2) hosts "Pete" Vance's Wardensville High Warriors (3-2) and Tom O'Connor's Ridgeley Black Hawks (2-3) entertain the Fort Ashby Eagles who have won thrice in five league outings.

Included in the flock of other Friday night engagements are a pair of C.V.A.L. tests featuring Frederick at North Hagerstown and Martinsburg at South Hagerstown. Mountaineer of Thomas at Circleville, Bedford at Hyndman in a Bedford County League tilt. Northern's Huskies of Garrett County at Oldtown and Parsons at Southern High, Oakland.

Pittsburgh divided 22 games with Milwaukee last season. The Pirates lost only one season series in 1958, bowing to Philadelphia, 10-12.

Ace Armstrong Is 3-1 Choice To Beat Dixon

Jerseyite To Seek 16th Straight Win

By JACK CUDDY
NEW YORK (UPI) — Middleweight contender Gene (Ace) Armstrong is favored at 3-1 to whip Eddie Dixon, the fighting cop, Friday night and send him back to his foot-patrolman's beat in Newark, N.J.

Unbeaten Armstrong of Elizabeth, N.J. — the ninth-ranking contender — seeks his 16th straight professional victory in his Madison Square Garden 10-rounder, which will be televised and broadcast nationally by NBC.

It's a fight between Armstrong, a slick boxer who has scored but one knockout, and Dixon, a slambang slugger who registered five kayoes while winning 14 of his 20 bouts.

Gene and Eddie are no strangers. They fought twice as amateurs in the 1952 Golden Gloves. Armstrong outpointed Dixon each time, but Ace was on the deck twice.

Whether the patrolman wins or loses, he faces some disciplinary action from Director Joseph F. Weldon of the Newark police — from a warning to a dismissal.

Weldon claims it's a violation of departmental regulations for any Newark policeman to engage in outside activities for money. Dixon and Manager Bobby Nelson will receive a total of about $4,000 from TV-radio and perhaps $1,000 from the gate.

Eddie, who joined the police force nine months ago, gets a salary of about $4,600. He is married and has two children. Should he upset Armstrong, he would be offered other lucrative matches by the International Boxing Club.

If Dixon loses Friday night, he probably will quit the ring and concentrate on police work, after taking a warning or brief suspension. But if he wins, he'll have to decide between police and pugilism.

147 Seeking Post At Florida State

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (UPI) — The chairman of the Florida State University Athletic Committee predicted Thursday it will be at least "another week or so" before a new football coach is named.

Dean Modde Stone said the faculty committee has 147 names in the pot, including applicants who have wired, written or telephoned.

Russians Work Out For Western Games

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP) — The Russian hockey players went to work Thursday, holding workouts in the Broadmoor Ice Palace.

They will play Colorado College there Friday night and Denver University on the same rink Saturday night.

The Russians have won three games and tied one since their arrival in this country.

The two college teams challenging the Russians this weekend are made up entirely of players from Canada.

Potomac State Plays Fairmont Quint Tonight

Potomac State College's Catamounts will play their first game at home since December 17 when they defeated the Fairmont State College Falcons tonight in a West Virginia Intercollegiate Conference contest.

Coach Dana "Horse" Lough's quint will be engaging in its tenth contest of the season and goes into tonight's game with an overall record of four wins and five losses. The Keyser cagers have bagged their last three games, defeating Hagerstown Junior College, 82-49, Shenandoah College, 95-76, and St. Mary's Junior College, 84-58. Potomac lost its only start in the conference to D. & E. College, 95-60.

Coach Paul Davis' Falcons invade Keyser with a 5-2 record in the W.V.I.C. Fairmont winds up its two-day road trip at Shepherd College Saturday night.

Tie-Breakers OK'd Watch The Panthers
Wiltson Mark Tops Posnak's Son Stars
By C. V. BURNS

THE initial move toward avoiding tie games in high school football has been taken by the National Alliance Football Committee which is meeting this week in New Orleans.

Approval of an experiment through which each state or conference can use "sudden death" playoffs or any other method of their choice has been given by the NAFC.

The committee is composed of the National Federation of State High School Athletic Associations, representing 20,000 high schools (including Maryland and West Virginia); the National Junior College Athletic Association, representing 350 junior colleges, and the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics, representing 450 smaller colleges.

Five tie game were played by colleges and high schools of the tri-state area last year. And it was a 6-6 deadlock with North Hagerstown High School that prevented Fort Hill from going through its second straight undefeated season and extending its winning streak to 19 games. The Sentinels and North High shared the C.V.A.L. title.

A pair of tie games also helped foul up the West Virginia Conference race in which Glenville was declared the winner over Shepherd College by the closest of margins. Potomac State played a scoreless tie with Glenville and the Shepherd-Fairmont contest ended in a 7-7 draw.

THE "sudden death" playoff idea also would be a welcome change in W.M.I. League soccer. Last season 30 games were played in the county circuit and six ended in draws — three 1-1 and a like number of 2-2 contests. Then to top it off the race ended in a tie between Bruce and Valley.

FRED HETZEL, 6-foot-7 son of Frederick Zimmerman Hetzel, who played basketball at Allegany High and the University of Maryland 30 years ago, slammed in 30 points Tuesday night to lead Landon School of Washington, D.C., to a 58-52 victory over DeMatha High School.

Hetzel collected 12 field goals as Landon extended its two-year winning streak to 14 games.

Fred excelled on jump shots from the side as well as layups from rebounds.

THE BEST foul shooting record of the early basketball season is credited to Bill Wiltson, Bruce High School sophomore, and leading point-getter of Coach Leonard Ritchie's Bulldogs.

Wiltson has figured in six games and has converted 23 out of 24 shots at the 15-foot mark.

He had an 8-for-8 performance in the opening game and meshed 14 consecutive shots in the first four contests, 5 out of 6 in the fifth and 4-4 in the sixth.

POTOMAC VALLEY Conference fans are keeping their eyes peeled on Franklin High School this season because many believe that Coach Gus Smith's Panthers are the "dark horses" in the battle for the championship.

Franklin has an overall record of 8-0 to date and is 4-0 in the conference. The Panthers play a schedule of 12 games in the P.V.C. and if they continue to flash the form they have shown in early games they could go all the way.

Franklin has five players who can score and does not depend on one or two players like most high school quints. Jack Simon has 106 points, Orville Rexrode 88, Billy Wimer 85, Richard Bennett 84 and Jim Keister 64 in the eight games played to date.

ONE of the stars of this season's High Point (Md.) High School quint is Bruce Posnak and if you remember the Cumberland Colts' Middle Atlantic League championship team of 1931 you'll recall that this boy's dad, Mac Posnak, was the husky first baseman who played on Manager Leo Mackey's team, then an affiliate of the New York Yankees.

Other members of that classy local club which beat Charleston (now in the American Association) in the playoffs after the split season campaign were Dom Palement, Augie Davu, Jake McCloy, Bernie Connell, Pat Shea, Danny Hall, Bill Helmick, Marvin Duke, Bob Synnot, Jim Densmore, Vito Tamulisi and Bill Salamore.

Mac Posnak was sent here by the Yankees in 1931 under the name of Max Pierce but later in the season he used his correct name. He was one of the stars at St. John's College (Brooklyn) when the Redmen were a power in college basketball.

Bruce played a leading role the other night when High Point whipped Montgomery Blair High, 39-36. The score at halftime hit a low 13-11 in High Point's favor.

FROM RAVENNA, Ohio, comes a reminder from Sports Editor Pershing Rohrer that the 1958-59 basketball season is the 20th anniversary of the Cumberland Dragons great team that won 56 games, including 31 in a row, and lost five.

"I think that record still stands," Pershing writes.

"That was the year the Elkins Aces, headed by Robert 'Red' Brown, now athletic director at West Virginia University, beat us in the Petersburg (W.Va.) Tournament when Louis 'Red' Wolford, our scoring ace, went to Denver to play for the Hagerstown Bakers in the A.A.U. tourney."

THE QUESTION of "Who holds the Hampshire County scoring record?" has been revived by Malcolm "Mac" Norwood, coach of the West Virginia School for the Deaf, who informs us by letter that Eugene Smith of his team scored 44 points in a game played at Romney, January 19, 1957, against the Western Pennsylvania School for the Deaf and this is better than the 43 points scored by Bill Maphis, Romney, and Alan Thorne, of Capon Bridge.

Smith scored 20 field goals and four fouls as the Lions won, 84-72.

Coach Norwood says he is making no effort to contest the claims that 43 points is a Hampshire county record because the West Virginia School for the Deaf is not really a part of the Hampshire County public school system.

"Being a state school we serve the state, so I do not know just exactly what kind of a record Smith has. I have always considered it a school record," Norwood writes.

"Frankly, Maphis could have scored more than 43 points against us. He left the game with about 7 minutes remaining and there was no stopping him that night. I wouldn't be surprised if he surpasses the 43 points some other night soon. I have had the occasion to observe him off as well as on the hardwoods and he is a boy who well deserves whatever honors come his way."

Human Transmitter Sends Race Results From Seat Of Pants

MIAMI, (UPI) — A "human radio transmitter" who had been sending race results from the seat of his pants was arrested Thursday by Tropical Park police.

Seized was John Quartrone, 31, who had a tiny transistor-powered transmitter attached to the belt of his pants with an aerial running down his leg.

Detectives said Quartrone, who claims to come from New York, probably was using a dot-and-dash system to relay results to a cohort in a nearby automobile. The results were then forwarded to a clearing house which sent them over long-distance wires throughout the country. It is illegal to transmit results until 30 minutes after a race.

Wesleyan Cagers Cop 13th In Row

INDIANA, Pa. (UPI) — Unbeaten West Virginia Wesleyan handed Indiana Teachers a 96-72 shellacking here Thursday night for its 13th consecutive victory.

The Bobcats were sparked by 6-foot-10 center Ken Remley who tossed in 31 points. Jim McDonald had 19 and Gary Hess 18 for the winners.

Jamie Kimbrough had 18 points and John Carnahan 16 as Indiana dropped its first home game in its last 29 starts. Indiana is 3-3 on the season.

Olmedo Forced To Quit Perth Tennis Tourney

Suffers Strained Stomach Muscle

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

PERTH, Australia (AP) — A strained stomach muscle forced Alex Olmedo to the sidelines Thursday, leaving Barry MacKay of Dayton, Ohio, and Earl Buchholz of St. Louis to carry on America's hopes for a singles title in the West Australian Tennis Championships.

MacKay and Buchholz will meet for the right to go into the finals against Spain's Andres Gimeno who advanced through Olmedo's default.

Olmedo, 22-year-old Peruvian who was the sensation of America's Davis Cup victory, had to quit after playing 12 games as the partner of MacKay in doubles.

He said the pain was so severe he could not serve. He had dropped service three times as the American tandem lost the first set 6-3 to Sweden's Ulf Schmidt and Jan Lundquist and trailed 1-2 in the second.

Olmedo was scheduled to begin a series of heat treatments Friday. Olmedo said the injury was an old one which bothered him at times during play in California.

"I found that only rest would help it," he said.

The young Inca Indian said he strained the muscle in his challenge match against Australia's Ashley Cooper at Brisbane Dec. 31. He suffered a recurrence of the injury in the first set of a five-set victory over Australia's top-seeded Rod Laver Wednesday.

Twilight League Meets Here Feb. 4

The Twilight Baseball League will hold its next meeting on February 4 at 7:30 p. m., at the Wilson Hardware Company.

Five of the seven clubs were represented at the last session of the league Wednesday night at the Franklin Mission hall. Teams represented were Franklin, Barton, Westport, Lonaconing and Klondyke.

Copies of the by-laws and contracts were distributed and the 1959 schedule was discussed.

The league is hopeful of adding another club and teams interesting in joining the circuit are urged to have representatives at the next meeting.

The champion Baltimore Colts and the New York Giants captured 11 of the 22 positions on the 1958 Associated Press all-pro team selected Thursday by sports writers covering the National Football League campaign.

Defensive end Gino Marchetti, one of the six Colts on the squad, was the only unanimous choice, getting all 41 votes of the experts. Baltimore's Johnny Unitas, who set a record by throwing at least one touchdown pass in 25 consecutive league games, received all but one vote for the quarterback position.

Ray Berry, the Colt's offensive end, and Jim Brown, Cleveland's great running back, each collected 39 votes. Other Baltimore stalwarts on the team are Jim Parker, offensive tackle; Lennie Moore, defensive back; and Gene Lipscomb, defensive tackle.

The Giants' all-pros are Rosey Brown, offensive tackle; Ray Dillon of the defensive squad.

Weitecha, center; Sam Huff, linebacker; Andy Robustelli, defensive end, and Jimmy Patton, safety.

Six other clubs placed men on the two units. Pittsburgh was represented by defensive tackle Ernie Stautner and defensive halfback Jack Butler. Los Angeles also had three—guard Duane Putnam, end Del Shofner and halfback Jon Arnett on the offensive outfit.

Detroit placed two men while Green Bay, Washington, Cleveland and the Chicago Bears had one player each. Philadelphia, San Francisco and the Chicago Cardinals failed to place a man on either the defensive or offensive outfits.

Linebacker Joe Schmidt and halfback Yale Lary were Detroit's representatives. Defensive back Bobby Dillon representing Green Bay and middle guard Bill George made it for the Chicago Bears. Dick Stanfel of Washington was the choice for left guard on the offensive team.

Eight players were repeaters from the 1957 team. They were halfback, Stanfel and Putnam of the offensive unit and Marchetti, Stautner, Schmidt, George, Butler and Brown, offensive tackle; Ray Dillon of the defensive squad.

West Virginia Defeats Penn State, 89-81

West Is Standout In Overtime Game

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (AP) — West Virginia's Jerry West proved his All America caliber Thursday night leading the Mountaineers to an 89-81 win over Penn State in overtime.

West's ball-hawking and eight-point shooting in the overtime period proved too much for the Nittany Lions, who had battled to even the score 71-71 at the end of the regulation game.

Penn State had an excellent chance to win the game with possession of the ball and only 1:18 to go in the second period but failed to get off a shot over the tight man-to-man West Virginia defense.

West led both teams in scoring with 32 points.

Mainrock Pays $269 To Win At Tropical Park

Flight Request, 2-1 Favorite, Is Second

MIAMI, Fla., Jan. 8 (AP)—Mainrock, who failed to win in five previous starts, provided longestshot players with $269.10 for $2 in the fifth race today at Tropical Park.

It was the highest payoff for the past two seasons at Tropical. The track record was set in 1937 by Eschbrook who paid $371 for $2. Mainrock, owned by Edward T. Sheehan, paid $65.70 to place and $12.30 to show. Flight Request, the 2-1 favorite, was second. Florence H. came in third.

Charley Burr hustled Mainrock after pacemaking Florence H. on the stretch turn and engaged the leader entering the final straightaway. Flight Request charged up on the outside and the three horses battled on virtually even terms from the sixteenth pole to the wire.

Mainrock covered the six furlongs in 1:11. The colt had vacationed for seven months before today's race.

Bernard Hatskin's Master Palyn led throughout the featured Turf Writers Ladies Purse, besting Fred Hooper Jr.'s Pryson by two and a quarter lengths.

F. A. Sherman's Reactor was a length and a half behind Pryson and three lengths to the fore of S. Kretchik's Johnny Reb.

Howard Grant sent Master Palyn to the lead at the break with Pryson, the 3 to 5 favorite of the 9,124 bettors, in closest pursuit.

The order never changed. Master Palyn was timed in 1:03 3/5 for 5 1/2 furlongs and paid $9.70, $3.40 and $3.10.

Eagles Sign Nocera

IOWA CITY, Iowa (AP)—John Nocera, 25, captain and fullback on last year's Big Ten champion Iowa football team, said Thursday he has signed a contract with the Philadelphia Eagles of the National Football League.

The real name of Sonny Ray, the heavyweight fighter, is Roger Moten.

Cards Sign Sam Jones

Strikeout Artist Given Pay Boost

ST. LOUIS (UPI)—Sad Sam Jones, strikeout king of the National League, signed his 1959 St. Louis Cardinals contract Thursday with a pay boost. General Manager Bing Devine announced Devine said three rookies also were signed.

Jones, a big right-hander from Monongah, W. Va., had a 14-13 record for the Cards during 1958 which was particularly attributed to poor team support, both in the hitting and fielding departments. He started in 35 games.

He holds the new Cardinal team record of 225 strikeouts which he set last season. The figure surpasses Dizzy Dean's total of 199, held by the Redbirds since 1933.

Van Lingle Mungo holds the record for the most strikeouts for a National Leaguer with 238. That mark was set in 1936.

The three newcomers, all of whom had three season trials with the Redbirds are left-handed pitcher Bill Smith, 24, shortstop Lee Tate, 26, and switch-hitting outfielder Ellis Burton, 22.

Catcher Gene Green is the only other Cardinal who has signed.

Legislators May Rescind Pay Order

Tawes 'Concerned' About Delegates' Quicky Measure

By HERR THOMPSON
ANNAPOLIS (AP)—Speculation increased here today that Maryland legislators may rescind Monday night the $10 additional expense allowance they voted themselves Wednesday.

One reason: Gov.-Elect J. Millard Tawes is reported "very much concerned" about the action, both from its public appearance and its impact on his efforts to balance the budget.

Another: some legislators themselves are openly concerned over the action, which launched the General Assembly's 90-day session. Apparently only a handful of them knew anything in advance about the order, which appeared in the House of Delegates and was approved without any discussion or debate.

Senate Delays Decision

The Senate later also tentatively approved it, on a close vote conducted after nearly an hour's discussion behind closed doors. But the Senate delayed final action until Monday night.

The order boosted legislative expense allowances from $20 per day to $30 per day.

A spokesman for Tawes said governor-elect was "very much concerned" about the action and didn't know anything about it until it had been taken. He said there would be conferences over the weekend with legislators, but indicated it would be up to the legislature itself whether to back down.

Best guesses among legislative observers here were that the General Assembly will reconsider Monday night and rescind the order.

The legislature normally sets its own budget, and the governor automatically provides the funds in his overall state budget.

Would Cut Into Budget

For Tawes the expense allowance increase could be a double blow. It would mean $900 per man for each of the 152 members for the current session, or $136,800 to be taken out of current general funds, thus depriving him of that much of the surplus he had anticipated toward balancing next year's budget.

Then, for next year's 30-day session, he would have to appropriate $45,600 in his new budget since it falls within the fiscal year, making an overall total of $182,400 lost to budget makers.

The legislative expense allowance is in addition to a $1,800 salary drawn annually by members of the legislature. Until four years ago legislators were allowed a "maximum" expense allowance for the session, which required them to file expense vouchers with the comptroller's office saying how the money was spent and how much they claimed.

Quick Substitution

This was changed in 1956 by the Legislature to a flat $10 per day per man. In 1957 the House upped the allowance to $20 per day, but the Senate didn't go along with the move until last year.

The pay allowances are provided for in a batch of House and Senate orders which are part of the first day's standard routine. Instead of reading $20 per day, the House order read $30, taking many in the chamber by surprise (some pleasantly).

But reaction began building to the move by House leaders, and the Senate went into a more thorough discussion by members. An informed source in the Senate predicted that the chamber will vote for a $20 allowance when the issue finally comes to a head next week.

Hyman Pressman, Baltimore attorney with a penchant for filing taxpayers' suits, has written Senate and House leaders threatening to contest the matter in the courts unless they rescind the order.

Pressman said the Legislature is really not legally entitled to the $20 it is presently getting since no provision for it is made in the constitution.

Jehovah Witnesses To Attend Assembly

A number of members from congregations of Jehovah Witnesses in this area are planning to attend and take part in a three-day assembly this weekend in Monessen, Pa.

Grant Furman, a member of the local congregation, will give a review on the book of Daniel and Mary Duckworth and Julia Morton of Lonaconing, will be on the program.

William Toepfer, presiding minister of the local congregation, also will attend the assembly.

EDWARD J. RYAN

Edward J. Ryan Is Appointed To Liquor Board

Post Vacated By Estel Kelley

In one of his last official acts, Governor Theodore R. McKeldin, a Republican, has appointed Democrat Edward J. Ryan, Cumberland and Frostburg attorney, to the Allegany County Board of Alcoholic Beverages License Commissioners for the remainder of a six-year term running until June 1, 1963.

Mr. Ryan was endorsed by the County Democratic State Central Committee for the post vacated by the resignation of Estel C. Kelley, a Republican, effective December 31. Mr. Kelley had to resign from the liquor board before he could qualify for the House of Delegates to which he was elected November 4.

Back in 1957, Mr. Kelley had resigned from the House of Delegates to accept a six-year term on the liquor board.

Democrat Required

Governor McKeldin was required to name a Democrat to succeed Mr. Kelley under terms of Chapter 176 of the 1953 Acts of the General Assembly, which was passed as Senate Bill 276. This measure stipulates that two of the three members of the Board of Alcoholic Beverages License Commissioners shall be members of the party which in the last preceding general election polled the highest number of votes in the aggregate for the positions of county commissioners.

Democrats John T. Mason and John J. Rowan pulled an upset November 4 by being elected county commissioners along with Republican William A. Wilson.

Mr. Ryan's commission, signed by Governor McKeldin and Secretary of State Claude B. Hellmuth, was received yesterday by Joseph E. Boden, clerk of Allegany County. Boden, clerk of Allegany County, indicated next Wednesday. Mr. Ryan ended last night that he probably will stop at the Court House this morning on the way from his Frostburg home to his Cumberland house to be sworn into the $2,400-a-year job by Mr. Boden.

Next meeting of the liquor board will be held Tuesday, January 20. Mr. Ryan will join Republican Stanley Hamilton, whose term expires in May, and Democrat Howard Vandegrift, whose term runs until May 1961.

Last Class Member

Mr. Ryan is the last surviving member of the original graduating class of LaSalle High School, the Class of 1910.

Twice he made good showings in elections despite the fact he lost. He ran for Circuit Court judge in 1950 against Morgan C. Harris and lost despite the fact that he carried both Allegany and Garrett counties. His defeat in Washington County more than offset his success in the two normally Republican counties. In 1954, he carried Allegany County over Republican DeWitt S. Hyde for Congress but lost out in the entire Sixth District by 3,898 votes.

In the Democratic primary last May, Mr. Ryan led the ticket in the seven-man contest for the six members of the Democratic State Central Committee.

Active in a number of fraternal organizations, the Frostburg and Cumberland attorney belongs to the Elks, American Legion, Moose and Eagles.

Waller To Head Celanese Plant

Thomas S. Waller has been appointed plant manager of the Celanese Corporation of America spun yarn plant in Burlington, N.C. He succeeds Frank B. Cameron, who was assigned as production manager of the Amcelle textile fiber plant here last week.

For the last 10 years, Mr. Waller has been associated with Celanese Mexicana, S.A., in Mexico City. For the past year, he was manager of the Chemical Fibers Division, having served previously as manager of Customer Service and Market Development, then as manager of Marketing.

Joining Celanese in 1941, Mr. Waller worked for five years in research and development dyeing and production dyeing in the Cumberland plant.

He is a 1937 graduate, in textile chemistry, of North Carolina State College. His background also includes work for Dan River Mills, Danville, Va., and Colonial Mills, in Clarksville, Va.

Mr. Waller is married to the former Dorothy Lassiter, of Raleigh, N.C. They have two daughters, Dorothy 16, a freshman at St. Mary's Junior College in Raleigh, and Patricia, 11.

The Celanese plant in Burlington has functioned instrumentally in the market development of new fibers and development of new yarn blends. It played an important part, for example, in the successful launching of Arnel, the Celanese triacetate fiber.

Mr. Cameron, Burlington plant manager during the past six months, joined Celanese in May, 1956, as a technical superintendent there, following eight years with Bibb Manufacturing Co., Columbus, Ga. He is a 1949 graduate of Clemson College, with a degree in textile manufacturing.

Scene Of Tragic Fire

Firemen are shown above watering down the charred remains of a fire which gutted a Wiley Ford home and claimed the life of Mark Jonathan Schilling, who would have been three years old in April. Four persons escaped from the burning home of Charles F. Schreiber Sr. at the west edge of the Cumberland

Airport. Volunteer firemen of Wiley Ford, Short Gap and Ridgeley, as well as local firemen from South End station, fought the fire, which was discovered by Mr. Schreiber about 10:30 a.m. The cause of the fire has not been ascertained, although it is believed it started in a first-floor bedroom.

City Officials Will Serve On Municipal Unit

Changes In Home Rule To Be Sought

Mayor J. Edwin Keech and City Attorney William R. Carscaden will be members of a committee to be named by the Maryland Municipal League to ease the economic plight of communities under home rule.

Mayor Keech returned yesterday after attending a Municipal League session in Annapolis, where he presented a city program aimed at boosting city revenues without affecting property taxes.

He said Edmund E. Mester, executive secretary, pledged the League will form a committee and asked the Cumberland officials to serve on the unit which will be organized during the next few weeks.

Is Not Alone

Mayor Keech said Cumberland is not alone since officials from other cities reported they are facing similar financial problems.

Several municipalities were reported to be concerned by Teamster Union plans to organize municipal workers.

The new committee will be asked by Cumberland to seek changes in the home rule law which would give municipalities the right to use any form of taxation or licensing that existed when home rule was adopted.

Stressed especially by Mayor Keech was a proposal to change the state income tax act to give municipalities a share of the tax on business created within the city when the owners live outside the city.

Seek City Share

He pointed out that Cumberland and other similar cities must pay for all services in many people who work in the city but live outside. A municipality's share of income tax revenue, however, is paid solely on the basis of residence.

The city also seeks a share of traffic fines on arrests made in the city and an higher allowance for maintenance of roads within the city.

B&O Announces Two Promotions

J. A. MacAnany, formerly assistant trainmaster on the Cumberland division of the B&O Railroad at Brunswick, has been promoted to trainmaster at East Salamanca, N.Y.

Mr. MacAnany will fill the post of D. E. Sheeran who has been named trainmaster at Chillicothe, Ohio. He succeeds J. R. Potter, who retired after 42 years of service.

Equity Suit Filed

An equity suit filed yesterday in Allegany County Circuit Court was titled Louise Eleanor Error vs. Peter Error.

Flintstone FFA Is Second In State-Wide Contest

Second prize in a state-wide contest for Future Farmers of America chapters whose members did the best job of promoting and carrying out soil and water conservation activities will be awarded to the Flintstone High School FFA chapter in Baltimore next Tuesday.

The presentation will be made at a luncheon at the Emerson Hotel in conjunction with the annual winter meeting of the Maryland Association of Soil Conservation Districts and the State Soil Conservation Committee. The contest was sponsored by the National Agricultural Department of Education in cooperation with the Maryland Soil Conservation Districts.

Kenneth M. Malone, vocational agriculture teacher at Flintstone and FFA adviser, will accompany Richard Hofe, the FFA chapter president, to Baltimore to receive the award. First prize will go to Williamsport High School's FFA chapter in nearby Washington County. Eleven chapters competed.

In this contest a record was kept of the soil and water conservation practices, woodland conservation practices and wildlife conservation practices. There are 49 boys in the Flintstone chapter who joined in the cooperative program.

Practices checked include contour strip cropping, contour cultivation, sod waterways, diversion terraces, cover crops, drainage, pasture rotation, pasture renovation, pasture feeding, pond construction, soil testing, thinning woodlots, fertilizing and managing farm ponds, feeding animals and birds and killing predatory animals.

Four Allegany County men are planning to attend the two-day session of the Maryland Association of Soil Conservation Districts and the State Soil Conservation Committee Monday and Tuesday at the Emerson Hotel.

They are Martin M. Gordon, acting work unit conservationist of the Soil Conservation Service; County Agent Joseph M. Steger, Floyd Muser and Charles S. Harvey, members of the County Soil Conservation District Board of Supervisors.

First activity of the two-day session will be the Maryland Land Week committee meeting at 10 a. m. Monday. Dates for the 1959 observance are October 4-10.

Leaders in the Monday discussions will include Joseph F. Kaylor, director of the State Department of Forests and Parks; Chester M. Kerns, chief of game management, State Game and Inland Fish Commission; Edward M. Davis, state conservationist for the Soil Conservation Service, and Dr. G. M. Cairns, chairman of the State Soil Conservation Committee.

Tuesday's program gets underway at 8:30 a. m. Speaker at the noon luncheon will be Gordon Zimmerman, executive director, National Association of Soil Conservation Districts. There will be a meeting of the Soil Conservation District personnel at 3 p. m. and the annual meeting of the Old Line Chapter, Soil Conservation Society of America, is scheduled for 7:30 p. m.

"However, the employees who have helped achieve this goal are no being compensated in line with the tremendous advances in production."

"The company has taken an adamant position that their employees in this plant must continue to work for a much lesser rate of pay, and flatly refuse to recognize some fair equity to these members. The union's position is simply that a just fair adjustment be made to properly compensate for work done."

Mr. Reiser said the report letter was being sent to correct impressions "that we are near agreement" and "that the changes the company is requesting" would not affect 95 per cent of their employees."

PPG Contract Talks Continue

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Union and company negotiators met with federal mediation Commissioner Robert Donnahoo for three hours Thursday in another effort to settle the 94-day Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co. strike.

After the joint session, United Glass and Ceramic Workers Union representatives met privately to discuss developments. Neither side had any comment on progress of the talks.

The strike has idled some 13,000 workers in 11 plants since Oct. 6. Job classifications, incentive pay and seniority are the chief points in dispute.

Donnahoo said another meeting will be held at 9:30 a.m. Friday.

Miller Indicted For Murder Of Estranged Wife

Bench Warrant Served In Jail

Albert L. Miller, 57, city, has been indicted for murder by the grand jury of the January term of the Allegany County Circuit Court in the fatal beating of his estranged wife, Clara Ethel Miller, 40, who had resided at 216 Decatur Street.

The victim was beaten early New Year's morning and died Sunday morning in Sacred Heart Hospital without regaining consciousness.

Miller was given permission to go to the funeral home prior to his wife's funeral on Tuesday afternoon, and was escorted by two deputy sheriffs.

After he was indicted by the grand jurors, a bench warrant was served on him in Allegany County Jail and the indictment was placed on the open docket yesterday morning.

Miller was taken before Chief Judge Morgan C. Harris and Thomas N. Berry was appointed as the defendant's attorney for the trial.

Mrs. Miller was found on the floor outside her apartment at 216 Decatur Street. Her death was attributed to multiple fractures of the skull caused when she was struck by a rung from a banister.

Miller, who was arrested by city police about an hour after his estranged wife was found, reportedly admitted in a statement to State's Attorney James S. Getty and County Investigator Edwin R. Lilya, that he beat his wife.

Dr. L. B. Ransom Is President Of Medical Society

Dr. Leland B. Ransom, 1002 Holland Street, has been elected the 1959 president of the Allegany County Medical Society, succeeding Dr. Hilda Jane Walters of Frostburg.

Chosen to serve with him are Dr. Leslie E. Daugherty, 7 Washington Street, vice president; Dr. Carlton Brinsfield, 1825 Bedford Street, secretary; and Dr. Thomas F. Lewis, LaVale Court, treasurer.

Dr. Ransom has announced appointment of three committees. A coordinating committee to study schedules for emergencies and other professional problems includes Dr. James H. Feaster Jr., Oakland; Dr. Hilda J. Walters, Frostburg; and Dr. William P. James, 948 Bedford Street.

An arrangements committee includes Dr. E. Irving Baumgartner, Oakland; Dr. Martin M. Rothstein, Frostburg; and Dr. Frank T. Cawley, LaVale.

A program committee consists of Dr. Brinsfield, Dr. Samuel M. Jacobson, Baltimore Road; Dr. L. Lewis Mould, LaVale; and Dr. Andrew E. Mance, Oakland.

The society plans to meet regularly each month on the second Wednesday, with the time and place to be announced. On alternate months, meetings will be devoted primarily to scientific sessions and on the intervening months meetings will include business, a program and entertainment.

Firemen Of LaVale Check Brush Fire

A brush fire in the rear of the Tri-State Roofing Company in LaVale was extinguished last night by volunteer firemen of that community.

Firemen, who received a call about 6:45 p.m., said an unattended brush fire spread to nearby brush, catching it afire. Some 20 volunteers answered the alarm.

Boy, 2, Dies As Flames Ruin Home

Four Escape From Blazing Dwelling At Wiley Ford

A little boy who would have been three years old in April died yesterday morning in a fire which gutted a seven-room frame dwelling in Wiley Ford. Four other persons escaped from the burning home.

The victim was Mark Jonathan Schilling, who apparently suffocated in the fire which swept through the home of his grandfather, Charles F. Schreiber Sr., at the west edge of the Cumberland Airport.

The body was taken to the Kight Funeral Home, where a private service will be conducted.

A stepbrother of the victim, Keith Bryan Loftus, about 15 months old; an uncle, Dennis Schreiber, 16; an aunt, Darryle Schreiber, 12; and the grandfather all escaped from the blazing structure. Dennis carried his young nephew to safety.

Cause Unknown

Three volunteer fire companies and a local company fought the fire, which was discovered about 10:30 a.m. by the grandfather. The exact cause of the blaze is unknown, and the house is a total loss, firemen said.

Death was apparently due to suffocation, said Leo Keplinger, coroner and justice of the peace in Mineral County.

The youngster's body was found by firemen at the head of the stairway near the bathroom on the second floor of the dwelling.

In the group of firemen who found the body were Captain Francis Wally and Pipeman Fred James of South End Fire Company No. 2 here, Fire Chief Robert Zimmerman and Assistant Chief Leo Rice of the Ridgeley volunteers.

Firemen, who said the inside of the house was thick with smoke, believe the child was suffocated while attempting to get to the stairway.

Mark Upstairs

Those who escaped were on the first floor, while the victim was upstairs. Mr. Schreiber said the fire started in a bedroom on the first floor, but neither he nor the firemen at the scene had any idea how it started.

Dennis Schreiber said the flames and smoke quickly engulfed the house, and the family just managed to flee outside.

The grandfather notified a neighbor, Mrs. Gene Malone, and she telephoned the Wiley Ford Volunteer Fire Company.

The Wiley Ford volunteers went to the scene and were given assistance by volunteers of Short Gap and Ridgeley as well as local firemen from South End fire station.

House Gutted

Browne Strawderman, chief of the Wiley Ford Fire Company, said the inside of the home was gutted and there was no way of determining the cause at the present time.

Mr. Schreiber, an electrician at the B&O Round House, was to have gone to work on the 3-11 shift yesterday afternoon. His two children were reportedly absent from school, since they had slept in the victim's mother.

The victim's mother, Mrs. Nancy Loftus, 25, who lives with her parents, was at work at Anton's, where she is employed as a waitress. Her sister, Darryle, notified her of the tragic fire.

The victim was a son of Clifford Schilling who is with a paraplegic unit in Kentucky. The stepfather is a Pennsylvania state trooper stationed in Butler. The grandmother, Mrs. Dorothy Schreiber, has been a medical patient in Memorial Hospital since Sunday.

Deadline Is Set On Dinner Tickets

Reports on ticket sales for the Democratic Victory Dinner to be held at Clarysville Inn January 24 are to be made by January 17, according to the dinner chairman, Julius E. Schindler.

State and county victors in the recent campaign will be honor guests. Mr. Schindler said. Gov.-elect Millard E. Tawes, principal speaker, will be introduced by former Judge William C. Walsh.
